

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

TWELFTH YEAR. NO. 65.

EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 24, 1896.

TWO CENTS

DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF EAST LIVERPOOL.

THE PEOPLE'S STORE.

The Acknowledged
Bargain Givers
of East Liverpool.

This Week

We will dispose of the following:

One lot of Fine Dress Gingham at 10 cts. per yard; reduced from 25 cts.

One lot of Best Apron Gingham, reduced to 5 cts. per yard.

One lot of Flannelettes, suitable for Tea Gowns, Night Dresses and Children's wear, 15 ct. values, reduced to 8 cts. per yard.

One lot (25 dozen) Men's Unlaundered Shirts, best 50 ct. values, reduced to 35 cts.

Remnants at half price in all departments.

Novelties for Fall, 1896, now in and more coming.

THE PEOPLE'S STORE.

Fifth and Diamond.

Three Entrances. C. C. BEYMER, Mgr.

We are Busily
Engaged in Cleaning Up,

AUGUST BARGAINS.

Preparatory to opening our Fall
Campaign.

WE are cleaning up everything in the line of Summer Goods, preparatory to opening our Fall Campaign.

At 9 cents a yard, in our Wash Goods department, you get your choice of a line of Wash Goods that formerly sold from 15c to 25c a yard. This is only one of many bargains to be had in every department.

One dollar easily buys two dollars' worth of Summer Dry Goods. It will pay you to come around and see what we are offering. This will be our last call on Summer Goods.

New Fall Dress Goods

Are being received daily, and we invite you to call and get posted in the new styles. When you get ready to buy, we know where you will buy your new fall dress; it will be at

The Boston Store,

A. S. YOUNG, 138 and 140 Fifth Street.
East Liverpool, Ohio.

DOWNED THE DICTATOR

Democrats Jumped All Over
Their Leader.

DOCTOR IKIRT WAS INDORSED

County and Congressional Delegates Were Instructed to Vote and Work For His Nomination—A Rousing Time at City Hall Saturday Night.

The worm has turned. The down trodden rank and file of Democracy have asserted their independence, the dictator has been deposed, and no longer will there be one man rule among the untried of the city.

When a Democrat falls a little farther from grace than the unwritten law of the party allows there is war, merry war, and woe to the aspiring politician whose unfortunate frame is caught between the contending factions of friend and foe. That is the condition existing at present, and the self-appointed ruler is in sackcloth and ashes, while his triumphant enemies are rising and falling in regular cadence—going through the interesting operation of jumping all over him.

It happened on Saturday evening. There was a caucus, and the central committee had a meeting. When the clans were gathered at city hall the pot was beginning to boil. The fires were lighted a year ago when the Democratic ticket was not printed in the local organ, and through all these months a suspicious bubbling was ever upon the surface. A few weeks ago it began to increase in force, and at the meeting it boiled over, engulfing the dictator forever, and leaving his shouting enemies triumphantly on top.

J. J. Weisend was chairman, and John W. Hall was secretary. Business was transacted under great pressure for a few minutes, and it was evident that something was about to happen. The excitement was growing intense, and someone would have burst if the secretary had not read the following:

"WHEREAS, The East Liverpool Crisis, in its attitude toward the platform of the Democratic party, as adopted at its national convention, and in its refusal to support both the platform and the ticket as nominated, has demonstrated that it is both un-Democratic and unworthy of recognition as the official organ of the Democracy of the city of East Liverpool and Liverpool township; therefore,

"Resolved, That we, the Democrats of the city of East Liverpool and of Liverpool township, in convention assembled, hereby repudiate the said East Liverpool Crisis as our official organ, declare the principles it advocates as un-Democratic, contrary to the teachings of the party, and the said organ is no longer worthy of our support."

That touched the spot. No one knew who introduced the resolution; no one cared. They only wanted the dictator deposed, and the resolution would answer every purpose. A shout went up, a long, fierce yell of approval. Some one moved it be adopted, a dozen screamed a second, and the vote was taken with a whirl. The language was not as fierce as some leaders of the opposition desired, but it carried out their intention, and they were glad.

Then the central committee had a meeting. By this time the feeling had risen to fever heat. The king's organ was dead, and now they wanted to kill the king. Since J. C. Deidrick was no longer training on the Democratic track it was moved that his name be stricken off the roll of central committeemen. This met with wild approval, but was amended so that the chair appoint a committee whose duty it would be to ask his resignation. This did not suit the crowd. It was not after their style, and amendment and motion went down to ignominious defeat. The better element of the party, although they had just cause to sanction the movement, could see no political capital in a display of too much venom, and counseled moderation. The old guard, however, were mad, and mad clear through. They were smarting under what they believed to be insult after insult, and they wanted revenge. They argued their point with more vehemence than logic, but the other side was firm. At length it was decided to call the victim before the committee, and have him show cause why he should not be dropped from the roll. That settled the matter, and while it by no means pleased the radicals, they were compelled to rest content with that action. The excitement was intense, and the tobacco juice abundant. Wonder is there was not a riot, for the history of the city will not show another such turbulent and noisy political gathering. Had there been present some champion of the dictator to fight his personal cause there is no telling what would have happened, but it is probable that he would have been thrown from the highest pinnacle of city hall,

FOR IKIRT.

Democrats Will Support Him For Congress.

Before the turbulent scenes at city hall last Saturday evening the Democrats did some business, and among other things appointed these delegates to the county convention being held in Columbiana today:

J. J. Weisend, John W. Hall, S. S. Kerr, M. W. Elliott, Walter Cook, Dal Anderson, John McHenry, Dr. G. P. Ikirt, Allison Morrow, Frank Ikirt and Joseph O'Reilly; alternates, John Litter, James H. Tracy, D. A. Gilchrist, Collin McLane, S. S. Kerr, John W. Moore, John Lynch, Ed O'Hanlon and Pat McCollough.

The delegation to the congressional convention were declared to be: S. S. Kerr, Walter Cook, John W. Hall, D. E. Gilchrist, Dr. G. P. Ikirt. Alternates: John Litter, J. J. Weisend, James E. Green, Joseph O'Reilly, Dal Anderson.

All delegates were instructed to vote for Ikirt for congress. The county delegates were also ordered to do all in their power for a united delegation from this county in his favor. Ikirt was not a candidate, his friends say, and it would not do him a great deal of good if he was. The candidate will not come from Columbiana county this year.

SURE TO FUSE.

Democrats and Populists Are Working Together.

COLUMBIANA, August 24.—[Special.]—The Democrats gathered here this morning, and are holding their county convention, with Editor Potts in full charge. W. H. Spence, the Lisbon attorney who once lived in East Liverpool, was made chairman of the convention, and T. F. Arnold, the Democratic leader of Leetonia, was placed at the secretary's desk. As Potts and his friends had everything their own way the first unusual business was the selection of a committee of five to confer with the Populists relative to fusion. It is understood that the arrangements have all been made, and they only need sanction by the delegates. Immediately after the appointment of the committee the convention adjourned for dinner.

When the convention met this afternoon, it was decided to take three of the best offices for Democracy and give the remainder to the Populists. S. P. Miller, of Columbiana, was nominated for probate judge; Charles McMillen, of Perry township, was chosen for recorder; John Robinson, of Center, has the call for infirmity director. The resolutions indorse free silver and the national ticket.

The Populists met in convention behind closed doors. The reporters were invited to get out, and rumor says that a Kilkenny time was the result. Some of the leaders are opposed to fusion, and the plans of the Democrats may not materialize.

HE KICKS.

A Business Man Wants the Streets Kept Clean.

A prominent business man in commenting Saturday on the dirty streets said: "It would take about four times as many men as Commissioner Finley has to keep these streets clean. You will not find another city of this size in the state that will allow teamsters to fill their wagons two feet above the bed, and then spread the load along the streets. If council has any power in the matter they should pass an ordinance prohibiting wagons being filled that way, and the dirty streets will soon disappear."

A BUSY SESSION.

Board of Education Will Have Its Hands Full.

The board of education will have its hands full at the meeting this evening, and finance will be as usual the principal question. The note for $4,500 will be discussed, and the bill for the first count of school children in the Third and Fourth wards will in all probability be paid. Members of the board refuse to discuss the matter of finance for publication, but it is thought that some decision may be reached at the meeting.

RECOVERED HIS DOG.

City Officials Are Laughing at Officer When.

All the officials at city hall now laugh when Officer Whan appears. Last Saturday Chief Johnson arrested an unmuzzled dog, and took it to city hall. The canine belonged to the officer, and when he recognized the animal he took it sorrowfully homeward, for he had publicly announced that he would wage vigorous warfare against the free and unlimited running of dogs through the city.

CALLING ON MCKINLEY

A Big Crowd of Excursionists
Went to Canton.

FOURTEEN COACHES IN THE TRAIN

They Were Not All Filled When They Left the City, but a Drum Corps and the McKinley Club Got Aboard at Wellsville. Others at Irondale and Salineville.

The McKinley club, Manley's band and a host of unattached Republicans went to Canton by special train this morning to pay their respects to Hon. William McKinley.

There was no parade, but soon after 7 o'clock the crowd began to gather at the passenger station. The band was there to make music until the appointed time arrived, and the remark was frequently heard that Canton would have an opportunity to hear some good music. The train was made up of 14 coaches, and left the city soon after the regular passenger from the river division went to Pittsburgh. The cars were not filled, but fully 600 people were on the well decorated train. Members of the McKinley club carried banners showing the sentiment of the excursionists, and hundreds of badges were distributed. At Wellsville 175 people and a drum corps crowded into the cars. It was the McKinley club and their friends of that place, and was an enthusiastic assemblage. More passengers were taken on at Irondale, Salineville and other towns along the route, and the cars were full when they arrived in Alliance. The effect of the excursion could be seen in potteries all over the city, and at city hall there was a woeful absence of public officials. All branches of trade were represented on the train, but the great majority were potters.

NONE MORE WELCOME.

Major McKinley Was Glad to See the Pottery.

CANTON, Aug. 25.—[Special.]—The McKinley club and their friends had a delightful ride to Canton this morning. The weather was all that could be asked, and the crowd enjoyed every hour of the time. The cars were filled by the time the train arrived in Canton, and the day was such that no one was tired. It was an enthusiastic crowd that entered the station, and it was not long in forming a parade. A committee was there to meet the visitors, and many crowded the streets on the line of march. The band played a few stirring airs, many people joined the procession, and when the McKinley residence was reached there were several thousand people in the crowd.

Major McKinley has not changed in appearance since he was last seen in East Liverpool, and a great shout went out from the crowd as he was readily recognized. The address was made by W. V. Blake, and the major responded.

Major McKinley thanked the club for calling on him, and said he could not conceal his pleasure at again meeting the potters of East Liverpool. There were none more welcome than those of his own congressional district. He briefly reviewed the pottery industry, and pointed out the progress it made under a high protective tariff. He showed in eloquent terms how the Wilson bill had shut down the potteries, reduced wages, and almost killed the manufacture of ware. He touched upon the money question, and said they all wanted a dollar that is a dollar the world over. He could not see any use in free silver with the workshops closed. Free silver and free trade were shown to make up a dangerous and destructive policy, and he urged the potters to stand by their old party.

The major was applauded at the end of almost every sentence. Cheer after cheer rent the air, and the crowd was among the most enthusiastic to visit Canton since the convention. A large delegation of Knox county farmers followed the potters, and they too were enthusiastic. After the reception the visitors went to Myers' lake, where they spent the afternoon very pleasantly.

THE CITY WON.

There Was Little Opposition to the Bond Issue.

The city won its case on Saturday, and bonds to the amount of $8,000 will be issued as soon as council can induce some dealer to buy.

The vote was small, and little interest was shown. The general public realized the money was needed, and only a few who were directly affected went to the polls.

In the First ward there were 34 votes for bonds and 12 on the other side, while the Second gave 54 affirmatives and 10 nays. The Third was more equally divided with 37 and 23, and the Fourth showed 46 in favor of borrowing and 19 against it. The total was 171 in favor of bonds and 63 in opposition. So little interest was shown in the election that few people were at the different polling places when the result was announced. Council will meet tomorrow evening.

ENTHUSIASTIC

Was the Republican Meeting in the Allison School House.

The Atkinson club was organized in the Allison school house over the river on Saturday night, with A. W. Stevenson, president; Henry Riley, vice president; W. C. Johnson, secretary, and Hooker Allison, treasurer. Stirring addresses were made by D. J. Smith, Peter A. Pugh and A. W. Stevenson. Over 100 names are on the list, and 250 will be secured this week. A big demonstration will be held at Rock Spring about the middle of September, when Hon. B. B. Dovenor and Hon. G. W. Atkinson will be present. The club will be made a permanent institution.

MISSING PEOPLE.

The Police Have Notices of An Old Man and a Boy.

The police have been furnished a description and instructed to look out for Archie Beers, Jr., an eleven year old lad, who is missing from his home in Chicago. A liberal reward has been offered for any information concerning his whereabouts.

Frederick Tuckes is the name of a man who is missing from the Beaver valley. He is 79 years old, and the description says he has bunions on his feet. He left his home in Moon township for Beaver Falls August 15, and has not since been seen.

SOME OTHER DAY

Will a Pair of Potters Settle Their Differences.

Two potters fought because of a girl, and after one had been hit on the head with a piece of pipe it was decided to defer the final settlement until next payday. The fight was fierce, and when it terminated one contestant was a sick man, and the other wondered if he had not done something wrong. It is understood the pair will settle their differences on the other side of the river after the most approved fashion next Saturday night.

TOO MANY CLOUDS.

The Eclipse Was a Failure in the Ohio Valley.

If there was an eclipse of the moon last Saturday evening, it would be a difficult matter to prove it by East Liverpool people. Mr. Bott watched long and earnestly through his telescope, but the clouds were too thick to admit of him seeing the moon. A few minutes before three o'clock the clouds cleared, and the shadow could be seen touching the extreme lower part of the disc. The same condition prevented good observations throughout this part of the world, but an excellent view was obtained in the west.

WITHOUT FUNDS.

An Unfortunate Dentist and His Family Were Stranded.

A well dressed man, accompanied by his wife and child, arrived in the city Sunday, and being without funds to go farther, Trustee Lloyd was asked for aid to take the family to Alliance, and the money was advanced. The stranger said he was a dentist, and he had come from Lock Haven, Pa. The story seemed true enough, and the board bill of the party was paid. They were sent to Alliance this morning.

A MISCREANT

Administered a Dose of Poison to Dickey's Dog.

The man who poisons dogs is again making his presence felt in the city, the latest victim being a handsome coach dog. The animal was the property of Frank Dickey, and was a great pet. The dog ate the poison this morning, and soon died. Mr. Dickey would like to know the individual who did the deed, and the officers of the dog show would aid in the prosecution if someone will kindly point out the miscreant.

FOUND THE TOOLS.

Captain Dawson's Well Will Now Be Drilled Deeper.

Captain W. F. Dawson has been notified that the tools lost in the well he was drilling near Marietta have been recovered, and work can now be resumed. The tools were lost two months ago after going into the ground 500 feet, and a long job of fishing followed. The well will be drilled at least 700 feet farther, and it is thought the sand will be reached at that depth.

Making Excellent Progress.

The brick work of the German Lutheran church will be finished by Saturday if the weather permits, and the carpenters expect to have it partially roofed by that time.

A FEW PLAIN DRUNKS

They Were Gathered In by the Police.

FINED FOR ASSAULT AND BATTERY

An East End Difficulty Was Disposed of by the Mayor—A Washington Street Disturbance Ended In an Arrest—Got the Wrong Man.

Yesterday was almost like old times about city hall, and everybody smiled when they observed a few cases on the docket.

Raymond Chambers, of East End, was the first to break the long silence, and filed a charge of assault and battery against James McElcannon. He was summoned to court, and, after detailing the particulars of the case, decided he was guilty. He got $5.00, and paying the amount, was released.

John Fox was another victim. He created a scene on Washington street, and was locked up by Officer Meador. He was very drunk when the officer invited him to partake of the city's hospitality, but was sober enough to appreciate the situation when Mayor Gilbert in tender tones whispered $5.00.

There was a discussion of some sort in West End at a late hour on Saturday night. A man named Carnes was actively engaged when Officer Whan became interested. Carnes had dismounted from a pony, and was talking in a loud voice when the officer ordered him to move on. The man showed no disposition to do so, and the officer enforced his demand by shaking him thoroughly. He promised to go home, and there was no arrest.

The patrol was out yesterday afternoon in search of someone wanted by the police. A man was arrested on Market street, and taken to city hall. There it was discovered a mistake had been made, and he was released.

A SPRING LOCK

Kept Janitor Bruin a Prisoner for Several Hours.

Mr. Bruin, the janitor of the First Presbyterian church, had an experience yesterday. He had occasion to go down into the cellar, the door of which is fastened by a spring lock. After he had passed in the wind blew the door shut, and as the key was on the outside, the janitor was a prisoner. He remained there for a long time, and then decided to escape. He crawled into one of the cellar windows, protected by screens. Here he stayed until the attention of a passerby was attracted by his cries. The screen removed, and he was a free man.

FOR A WEEK

Has the Hearing of Porter Kayes Been Postponed.

A crowd gathered at the office of Squire Morley this morning in the hope of hearing some sensational testimony when Porter Kayes was examined on the serious charge preferred against him by George Ward, but were disappointed. The attorneys were not ready, and it was agreed to postpone the hearing until next Monday. The bondsman of Kayes agreed to stand by him for the required time, and he was allowed to go his way. Further developments of an interesting character are still expected.

TO THE HOSPITAL.

Harry Shiffbauer Will Be Taken to Pittsburgh This Week.

Harry Shiffbauer, the little tailor, who has long been suffering from the effects of ulcers in his side, has grown worse, and will be taken to a Pittsburgh hospital this week. Shiffbauer has suffered a great deal from the ailment, and not long ago passed through a severe surgical operation, and was for a time much better.

An Honest Boy.

A. W. Scott was so unfortunate on Saturday evening as to lose his pocket-book. It contained several checks and a considerable amount of money in bills. It was returned this morning by a young man who found it on the street, a few minutes after Mr. Scott had telephoned an advertisement to the News Review.

Took the Train.

Harry Pope and Joseph Meigh rode to Bevington, Pa., on their wheels Saturday evening. Both returned this morning, the former taking the train on the journey home.

Caught Coons.

The Pittsburg party who are in camp on Beaver creek succeeded in bagging over 20 coons during last week.

Going to Texas.

James Rinehart will leave this evening for a nine weeks' trip in Texas in the interest of the Dresden pottery company.

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

TWELFTH YEAR, NO. 65.

EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO, MONDAY, AUGUST 24, 1896.

TWO CENTS

DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF EAST LIVERPOOL.

THE PEOPLE'S STORE.

The Acknowledged
Bargain Givers
of East Liverpool.

This Week

We will dispose of the following:

One lot of Fine Dress Gingham at 10 cts. per yard; reduced from 25 cts.

One lot of Best Apron Gingham, reduced to 5 cts. per yard.

One lot of Flannelettes, suitable for Tea Gowns, Night Dresses and Children's wear, 15 ct. values, reduced to 8 cts. per yard.

One lot (25 dozen) Men's Unlaundered Shirts, best 50 ct. values, reduced to 35 cts.

Remnants at half price in all departments.

Novelties for Fall, 1896, now in and more coming.

THE PEOPLE'S STORE.

Fifth and Diamond.

Three Entrances. C. C. BEYMER, Mgr.

We are Busily
Engaged in Cleaning Up.

AUGUST BARGAINS.

Preparatory to
opening our Fall
Campaign.

WE are cleaning up everything in the line of Summer Goods, preparatory to opening our Fall Campaign.

At 9 cents a yard, in our Wash Goods department, you get your choice of a line of Wash Goods that formerly sold from 15c to 25c a yard. This is only one of many bargains to be had in every department.

One dollar easily buys two dollars' worth of Summer Dry Goods. It will pay you to come around and see what we are offering. This will be our last call on Summer Goods.

New Fall Dress Goods

Are being received daily, and we invite you to call and get posted in the new styles. When you get ready to buy, we know where you will buy your new fall dress; it will be at

The Boston Store,

A. S. YOUNG, 138 and 140 Fifth Street.
East Liverpool, Ohio.

DOWNED THE DICTATOR

Democrats Jumped All Over
Their Leader.

DOCTOR IKIRT WAS INDORSED

County and Congressional Delegates Were Instructed to Vote and Work For His Nomination—A Rousing Time at City Hall Saturday Night.

The worm has turned. The down trodden rank and file of Democracy have asserted their independence, the dictator has been deposed, and no longer will there be one man rule among the untarnished of the city.

When a Democrat falls a little farther from grace than the unwritten law of the party allows there is war, merry war, and woe to the aspiring politician whose unfortunate frame is caught between the contending factions of friend and foe. That is the condition existing at present, and the self-appointed ruler is in sackcloth and ashes, while his triumphant enemies are rising and falling in regular cadence—going through the interesting operation of jumping all over him.

It happened on Saturday evening. There was a caucus, and the central committee had a meeting. When the clans were gathered at city hall the pot was beginning to boil. The fires were lighted a year ago when the Democratic ticket was not printed in the local organ, and through all these months a suspicious bubbling was ever upon the surface. A few weeks ago it began to increase in force, and at the meeting it boiled over, engulfing the dictator forever, and leaving his shouting enemies triumphantly on top.

J. J. Weisend was chairman, and John W. Hall was secretary. Business was transacted under great pressure for a few minutes, and it was evident that something was about to happen. The excitement was growing intense, and someone would have burst if the secretary had not read the following:

"WHEREAS, The East Liverpool Crisis, in its attitude toward the platform of the Democratic party, as adopted at its national convention, and in its refusal to support both the platform and the ticket as nominated, has demonstrated that it is both undemocratic and unworthy of recognition as the official organ of the Democracy of the city of East Liverpool and Liverpool township; therefore,

"Resolved, That we, the Democrats of the city of East Liverpool and of Liverpool township, in convention assembled, hereby repudiate the said East Liverpool Crisis as our official organ, declare the principles it advocates as undemocratic, contrary to the teachings of the party, and the said organ is no longer worthy of our support."

That touched the spot. No one knew who introduced the resolution; no one cared. They only wanted the dictator deposed, and the resolution would answer every purpose. A shout went up, a long, fierce yell of approval. Some one moved it be adopted, a dozen screamed a second, and the vote was taken with a whirl. The language was not as fierce as some leaders of the opposition desired, but it carried out their intention, and they were glad.

Then the central committee had a meeting. By this time the feeling had risen to fever heat. The king's organ was dead, and now they wanted to kill the king. Since J. C. Deidrick was no longer training on the Democratic track it was moved that his name be stricken off the roll of central committeemen. This met with wild approval, but was amended so that the chair appoint a committee whose duty it would be to ask his resignation. This did not suit the crowd. It was not after their style, and amendment and motion went down to ignominious defeat. The better element of the party, although they had just cause to sanction the movement, could see no political capital in a display of too much venom, and counseled moderation. The old guard, however, were mad, and mad clear through. They were smarting under what they believed to be insult after insult, and they wanted revenge. They argued their point with more vehemence than logic, but the other side was firm. At length it was decided to call the victim before the committee, and have him show cause why he should not be dropped from the roll. That settled the matter, and while it by no means pleased the radicals, they were compelled to rest content with that action. The excitement was intense, and the tobacco juice abundant. Wonder is there was not a riot, for the history of the city will not show another such turbulent and noisy political gathering. Had there been present some champion of the dictator to fight his personal cause there is no telling what would have happened, but it is probable that he would have been thrown from the highest pinnacle of city hall.

FOR IKIRT.

Democrats Will Support Him For Congress.

Before the turbulent scenes at city hall last Saturday evening the Democrats did some business, and among other things appointed these delegates to the county convention being held in Columbiana today:

J. J. Weisend, John W. Hall, S. S. Kerr, M. W. Elliott, Walter Cook, Dal Anderson, John McHenry, Dr. G. P. Ikirt, Allison Morrow, Frank Ikirt and Joseph O'Reilly; alternates, John Litmer, James H. Tracy, D. A. Gilchrist, Collin McClane, S. S. Kerr, John W. Moore, John Lynch, Ed O'Hanlon and Pat McCollough.

The delegation to the congressional convention were declared to be: S. S. Kerr, Walter Cook, John W. Hall, D. E. Gilchrist, Dr. G. P. Ikirt, Alternates: John Litmer, J. J. Weisend, James E. Green, Joseph O'Reilly, Dal Anderson.

All delegates were instructed to vote for Ikirt for congress. The county delegates were also ordered to do all in their power for a united delegation from this county in his favor. Ikirt was not a candidate, his friends say, and it would not do him a great deal of good if he was. The candidate will not come from Columbiana county this year.

SURE TO FUSE.

Democrats and Populists Are Working Together.

COLUMBIANA, August 24.—[Special.]—The Democrats gathered here this morning, and are holding their county convention, with Editor Potts in full charge. W. H. Spence, the Lisbon attorney who once lived in East Liverpool, was made chairman of the convention, and T. F. Arnold, the Democratic leader of Leetonia, was placed at the secretary's desk. As Potts and his friends had everything their own way the first unusual business was the selection of a committee of five to confer with the Populists relative to fusion. It is understood that the arrangements have all been made, and they only need sanction by the delegates. Immediately after the appointment of the committee the convention adjourned for dinner.

When the convention met this afternoon, it was decided to take three of the best offices for Democracy and give the remainder to the Populists. S. P. Miller, of Columbiana, was nominated for probate judge; Charles McMillen, of Perry township, was chosen for recorder; John Robinson, of Center, has the call for infirmity director. The resolutions indorse free silver and the national ticket.

The Populists met in convention behind closed doors. The reporters were invited to get out, and rumor says that a Kilkenny time was the result. Some of the leaders are opposed to fusion, and the plans of the Democrats may not materialize.

HE KICKS.

A Business Man Wants the Streets Kept Clean.

A prominent business man in commenting Saturday on the dirty streets said: "It would take about four times as many men as Commissioner Finley has to keep these streets clean. You will not find another city of this size in the state that will allow teamsters to fill their wagons two feet above the bed, and then spread the load along the streets. If council has any power in the matter they should pass an ordinance prohibiting wagons being filled that way, and the dirty streets will soon disappear."

A BUSY SESSION.

Board of Education Will Have Its Hands Full.

The board of education will have its hands full at the meeting this evening, and finance will be the principal question. The note for $1,500 will be discussed, and the bill for the first count of school children in the Third and Fourth wards will in all probability be paid. Members of the board refuse to discuss the matter of finance for publication, but it is thought that some decision may be reached at the meeting.

RECOVERED HIS DOG.

City Officials Are Laughing at Officer Whan.

All the officials at city hall now laugh when Officer Whan appears. Last Saturday Chief Johnson arrested an unmuzzled dog, and took it to city hall. The canine belonged to the officer, and when he recognized the animal he took it sorrowfully homeward, for he had publicly announced that he would wage vigorous warfare against the free and unlimited running of dogs through the city.

CALLING ON MCKINLEY

A Big Crowd of Excursionists
Went to Canton.

FOURTEEN COACHES IN THE TRAIN

They Were Not All Filled When They Left the City, but a Drum Corps and the McKinley Club Got Aboard at Wellsville. Others at Irondale and Salineville.

The McKinley club, Manley's band and a host of unattached Republicans went to Canton by special train this morning to pay their respects to Hon. William McKinley.

There was no parade, but soon after 7 o'clock the crowd began to gather at the passenger station. The band was there to make music until the appointed time arrived, and the remark was frequently heard that Canton would have an opportunity to hear some good music. The train was made up of 14 coaches, and left the city soon after the regular passenger train from the river division went to Pittsburgh. The cars were not filled, but fully 600 people were on the well decorated train. Members of the McKinley club carried banners showing the sentiment of the excursionists, and hundreds of badges were distributed. At Wellsville 175 people and a drum corps crowded into the cars. It was the McKinley club and their friends of that place, and was an enthusiastic assemblage. More passengers were taken on at Irondale, Salineville and other towns along the route, and the cars were full when they arrived in Alliance.

The effect of the excursion could be seen in potteries all over the city, and at city hall there was a woeful absence of public officials. All branches of trade were represented on the train, but the great majority were potters.

NONE MORE WELCOME.

Major McKinley Was Glad to See the Pottery.

CANTON, Aug. 25.—[Special.]—The McKinley club and their friends had a delightful ride to Canton this morning. The weather was all that could be asked, and the crowd enjoyed every hour of the time. The cars were filled by the time the train arrived in Canton, and the day was such that no one was tired. It was an enthusiastic crowd that entered the station, and it was not long in forming a parade. A committee was there to meet the visitors, and many crowded the streets on the line of march. The band played a few stirring airs, many people joined the procession, and when the McKinley residence was reached there were several thousand people in the crowd.

Major McKinley has not changed in appearance since he was last seen in East Liverpool, and a great shout went out from the crowd as he was readily recognized. The address was made by W. V. Blake, and the major responded.

Major McKinley thanked the club for calling on him, and said he could not conceal his pleasure at again meeting the potters of East Liverpool. There were none more welcome than those of his own congressional district. He briefly reviewed the potting industry, and pointed out the progress it made under a high protective tariff. He showed in eloquent terms how the Wilson bill had shut down the potteries, reduced wages, and almost killed the manufacture of ware. He touched upon the money question, and said they all wanted a dollar that is a dollar the world over. He could not see any use in free silver with the workshops closed. Free silver and free trade were shown to make up a dangerous and destructive policy, and he urged the potters to stand by their old party.

The major was applauded at the end of almost every sentence. Cheer after cheer rent the air, and the crowd was among the most enthusiastic to visit Canton since the convention. A large delegation of Knox county farmers followed the potters, and they too were enthusiastic. After the reception the visitors went to Myers' lake, where they spent the afternoon very pleasantly.

THE CITY WON.

There Was Little Opposition to the Bond Issue.

The city won its case on Saturday, and bonds to the amount of $8,000 will be issued as soon as council can induce some dealer to buy.

The vote was small, and little interest was shown. The general public realized the money was needed, and only a few who were directly affected went to the polls.

In the First ward there were 34 votes for bonds and 12 on the other side, while the Second gave 54 affirmatives and 10 nays. The Third was more equally divided with 37 and 23, and the Fourth showed 46 in favor of borrowing and 19 against it. The total was 171 in favor of bonds and 63 in opposition. So little interest was shown in the election that few people were at the different polling places when the result was announced. Council will meet tomorrow evening.

ENTHUSIASTIC

Was the Republican Meeting in the Allison School House.

The Atkinson club was organized in the Allison school house over the river on Saturday night, with A. W. Stevenson, president; Henry Riley, vice president; W. C. Johnson, secretary, and Hooker Allison, treasurer. Stirring addresses were made by D. J. Smith, Peter A. Pugh and A. W. Stevenson. Over 100 names are on the list, and 250 will be secured this week. A big demonstration will be held at Rock Spring about the middle of September, when Hon. B. B. Dovenor and Hon. G. W. Atkinson will be present. The club will be made a permanent institution.

MISSING PEOPLE.

The Police Have Notices of An Old Man and a Boy.

The police have been furnished a description and instructed to look out for Archie Beers, Jr., an eleven year old lad, who is missing from his home in Chicago. A liberal reward has been offered for any information concerning his whereabouts.

Frederick Tuckes is the name of a man who is missing from the Beaver valley. He is 79 years old, and the description says he has bunions on his feet. He left his home in Moon township for Beaver Falls August 15, and has not since been seen.

SOME OTHER DAY

Will a Pair of Potters Settle Their Differences.

Two potters fought because of a girl, and after one had been hit on the head with a piece of pipe it was decided to defer the final settlement until next payday. The fight was fierce, and when it terminated one contestant was a sick man, and the other wondered if he had not done something wrong. It is understood the pair will settle their differences on the other side of the river after the most approved fashion next Saturday night.

TOO MANY CLOUDS.

The Eclipse Was a Failure in the Ohio Valley.

If there was an eclipse of the moon last Saturday evening, it would be a difficult matter to prove it by East Liverpool people. Mr. Bott watched long and earnestly through his telescope, but the clouds were too thick to admit of him seeing the moon. A few minutes before three o'clock the clouds cleared, and the shadow could be seen touching the extreme lower part of the disc. The same condition prevented good observations throughout this part of the world, but an excellent view was obtained in the west.

WITHOUT FUNDS.

An Unfortunate Dentist and His Family Were Stranded.

A well dressed man, accompanied by his wife and child, arrived in the city Sunday, and being without funds to go farther, Trustee Lloyd was asked for aid to take the family to Alliance, and the money was advanced. The stranger said he was a dentist, and he had come from Lock Haven, Pa. The story seemed true enough, and the board bill of the party was paid. They were sent to Alliance this morning.

A MISCREANT

Administered a Dose of Poison to Dickey's Dog.

The man who poisons dogs is again making his presence felt in the city, the latest victim being a handsome coach dog. The animal was the property of Frank Dickey, and was a great pet. The dog ate the poison this morning, and soon died. Mr. Dickey would like to know the individual who did the deed, and the officers of the dog show would aid in the prosecution if someone will kindly point out the miscreant.

FOUND THE TOOLS.

Captain Dawson's Well Will Now Be Drilled Deeper.

Captain W. F. Dawson has been notified that the tools lost in the well he was drilling near Marietta have been recovered, and work can now be resumed. The tools were lost two months ago after going into the ground 500 feet, and a long job of fishing followed. The well will be drilled at least 700 feet farther, and it is thought the sand will be reached at that depth.

Making Excellent Progress.

The brick work of the German Lutheran church will be finished by Saturday if the weather permits, and the carpenters expect to have it partially roofed by that time.

A FEW PLAIN DRUNKS

They Were Gathered In by the Police.

FINED FOR ASSAULT AND BATTERY

An East End Difficulty Was Disposed of by the Mayor—A Washington Street Disturbance Ended In an Arrest—Got the Wrong Man.

Yesterday was almost like old times about city hall, and everybody smiled when they observed a few cases on the docket.

Raymond Chambers, of East End, was the first to break the long silence, and filed a charge of assault and battery against James McElannan. He was summoned to court, and, after detailing the particulars of the case, decided he was guilty. He got $9.00, and paying the amount, was released.

John Fox was another victim. He created a scene on Washington street, and was locked up by Officer Meanor. He was very drunk when the officer invited him to partake of the city's hospitality, but was sober enough to appreciate the situation when Mayor Gilbert in tender tones whispered $5.00.

There was a discussion of some sort in West End at a late hour on Saturday night. A man named Carnes was actively engaged when Officer Whan became interested. Carnes had dismounted from a pony, and was talking in a loud voice when the officer ordered him to move on. The man showed no disposition to do so, and the officer enforced his demand by shaking him thoroughly. He promised to go home, and there was no arrest.

The patrol was out yesterday afternoon in search of someone wanted by the police. A man was arrested on Market street, and taken to city hall. There it was discovered a mistake had been made, and he was released.

A SPRING LOCK

Kept Janitor Bruin a Prisoner for Several Hours.

Mr. Bruin, the janitor of the First Presbyterian church, had an experience yesterday. He had occasion to go down into the cellar, the door of which is fastened by a spring lock. After he had passed in the wind blew the door shut, and as the key was on the outside, the janitor was a prisoner. He remained there for a long time, and then decided to escape. He crawled into one of the cellar windows, protected by screens. Here he stayed until the attention of a passerby was attracted by his cries. The screen removed, and he was a free man.

FOR A WEEK

Has the Hearing of Porter Kayes Been Postponed.

A crowd gathered at the office of Squire Morley this morning in the hope of hearing some sensational testimony when Porter Kayes was examined on the serious charge preferred against him by George Ward, but were disappointed. The attorneys were not ready, and it was agreed to postpone the hearing until next Monday. The bondsman of Kayes agreed to stand by him for the required time, and he was allowed to go his way. Further developments of an interesting character are still expected.

TO THE HOSPITAL.

Harry Shiffbauer Will Be Taken to Pittsburgh This Week.

Harry Shiffbauer, the little tailor, who has long been suffering from the effects of ulcers in his side, has grown worse, and will be taken to a Pittsburgh hospital this week. Shiffbauer has suffered a great deal from the ailment, and not long ago passed through a severe surgical operation, and was for a time much better.

An Honest Boy.

A. W. Scott was so unfortunate on Saturday evening as to lose his pocket-book. It contained several checks and a considerable amount of money in bills. It was returned this morning by a young man who found it on the street, a few minutes after Mr. Scott had telephoned an advertisement to the News Review.

Took the Train.

Harry Pope and Joseph Meigh rode to Bevington, Pa., on their wheels Saturday evening. Both returned this morning, the former taking the train on the journey home.

Caught Coons.

The Pittsburg party who are in camp on Beaver creek succeeded in bagging over 20 coons during last week.

Going to Texas.

James Rinehart will leave this evening for a nine weeks' trip in Texas in the interest of the Dresden pottery company.

The News Review

LEADING DAILY OF COLUMBIANA COUNTY.

PUBLISHED DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY BY THE NEWS REVIEW COMPANY.

HARRY PALMER, Manager and Proprietor.
[Entered as second class matter at the East Liverpool, O., postoffice.]

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:
(Postage free in United States and Canada.)
One Year in Advance $5.00
Three Months " 1.25
By the Week " 10

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, AUGUST 24.

UNION LABEL

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
Of Ohio.

For Vice President,
GARRET A. HOBART,
Of New Jersey.

For Electors at Large,
ISAAC F. MACK,
ALBERT C. DOUGLASS.

For Secretary of State,
CHARLES KINNEY.

For Judge of Supreme Court,
MARSHALL J. WILLIAMS.

For Member of Board of Public Works,
FRANK HUFFMAN.

For Congress,
ROBERT W. TAYLER.

For Judge of the Circuit Court,
J. B. BURROWS.

For Judge of Common Pleas Court,
P. M. SMITH.

For Probate Judge,
J. C. BOONE.

For Clerk of Courts,
JOHN S. M'NUTT.

For Recorder,
ED. M. CROSSER.

For Commissioner,
CHRIS. BOWMAN.

For Infirmary Director,
L. C. HOOPES.

For Coroner,
JOHN L. STRAUGHN.

THAT indorsement of Doctor Ikert only proves the more that our Democratic friends are jokers.

If McKinley fails to carry New York by an immense majority it is because Boss Platt has this year dispensed with his midsummer nap.

EIGHT hundred thousand railroad men will vote for McKinley according to the Railway Age. Pass along the news to Wellsville.

BUSINESS men in the south are for McKinley and honest money, while the people who think free silver means the free distribution of the white metal will vote for Bryan.

WHILE the millionaire silver miners are paying the expenses of the Democratic campaign, the free coinage organs are pointing to Republican headquarters and shouting, "Beware of the barrel."

THE demand for tariff literature is enormous, and the Republicans leaders are shipping thousands of documents into the west. The people are tired of silver, and want to hear something of the true issue.

BRYAN CAN EXPLAIN.

If Candidate Bryan should so far forget himself as to yield to the prayers of his friends and come to this place, he can interest the people by explaining a few points in his congressional career upon which no light has yet been shed. He can, with propriety and with no injury to his dignity, tell the operative potters why he voted for the cut in the crockery tariff, and lent his voice in forcing upon them a reduction in wages. He can tell why he smiled and seemed glad when their friends were before him in the ways and means committee hearings, and took especial delight in bulldozing the potters. Then he can become reminiscent and incidentally clear up the mystery about his belief that a potter should not make $18 a week because his farmer friends in Nebraska cannot realize the same amount from their toil. This will be enough for the city, and he can turn his attention to the farmers. To them he can give his reason for supporting free wool, and why he should expect their votes after he aided in depriving them of many thousands of dollars. All these things interest East Liverpool. The people want to know the particulars. They have suffered because of Mr. Bryan's attitude toward them, and could spend a pleasant evening listening to his story of his failure as a statesman.

The festival given Saturday night by the Church of Christ was largely attended.

Advance Style of Fall Suits.

Advantages of Buying Early:

We buy our goods in advance of the season. By doing so we can take plenty of time to compare styles and prices, pick out the handsome patterns, and decide on the best qualities. We get just what we want and have it on hand just when we want it. We like the plan so well that we strongly recommend it to our customers; it will pay them for exactly the same reason that it pays us. The man who buys early gets a full Season's use of his clothes; he finds the suit very comfortable several weeks before he expected to need it, and he is usually better satisfied because he has taken time to make a careful selection.

FANCY SCOTCH MIXTURES.

Mixtures of Green, Brown, Grey, Red will be the sellers for the coming season, up to date goods. Made in Sack Coat, either 3 or 4 button Sack. Fly Front Coats and Vests are very popular. We have them also in Outaway or Double-breasted Suits. These suits are made by the best manufacturers in the United States—houses that have a reputation all over the country—no Cheap John make do we carry. (Sweet Shop Make). Such goods we have no room for at any price. They are dear whatever price you pay for them. First place they are not sewed, they have no fit; you might as well wear your old suit, as after a week's wear you have an old suit. Buy reliable made goods, you will profit by it. It needs no argument. We will convince you on seeing the superiority of well-made suits at our store. The E. and M. Special Hat can't help but please you. It is a seller with us. See our Men's Stiff Hat we sell at 98 and $1.48.

JOSEPH BROS.

PLATT FOR GOVERNOR.

New York Republicans Likely to Name Him.

HE CAN'T STEM THE TIDE HIMSELF.

The Sentiment Has Grown Beyond the Control of the Ex-Senator—He May Be Just Showing His Power—Warner Miller May Be Ousted.

SARATOGA, Aug. 24.—Thomas C. Platt will probably be the nominee of the Republican state convention for governor of New York, unless he can successfully combat a great and growing sentiment that has almost ceased to be a matter that Mr. Platt can control. His name will be presented to the convention and every other candidate will withdraw and he will be nominated without debate. Your correspondent showed this statement to Mr. Platt. He thought for a few minutes, ran his thin, almost effeminate hand through his beard and said slowly and distinctly: "I am not a candidate and I do not want the office."

"But, Mr. Platt, suppose that the convention is stumped for you?"

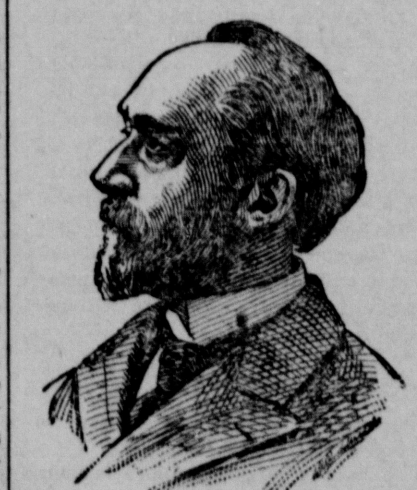

"I don't think it will be, I do not want the nomination. I prefer plain citizenship and I shall decline to stand for the nomination. I have told this to all the persons who have spoken to me about it."

It was, however, a significant fact that Edward Lauterbach and Lemuel E. Quigg were working among the delegates and Mr. Platt had not instructed them to desist. Ex-State Senator Vancott was also advocating the nomination of Mr. Platt, and he asserted that Mr. Platt, while averse to the nomination, would take it if the delegates offered it to him in the convention.

Lieutenant Governor Saxton said: "In my opinion the nomination will go to Mr. Platt. The tide has been set that way strongly, and I don't think Mr. Platt can stop it."

Mr. Hamilton Fish, who is a candidate for governor, said: "If Mr. Platt will stand for the nomination I will withdraw and second it. I am for Mr. Platt."

Mr. George W. Aldridge, who is also a candidate for governor, is credited with making a similar statement, and it is certain that if Mr. Platt's name is presented all other candidates will withdraw.

THOMAS C. PLATT.

Congressman Quigg said: "Mr. Platt will be nominated by acclamation."

John Milholland, who is the leader of the "McKinley league" and a bitter opponent of Mr. Platt, said when asked what the attitude of his faction of the party would be if Mr. Platt were nominated: "It would not be a proper thing for me to say at this time what we shall do. I think from the looks of things that Mr. Platt will be nominated."

There is another story afloat. It is that Mr. Platt will allow the agitation in his behalf to proceed until tonight in order to demonstrate his popularity among the delegates and that then he would call upon his lieutenants to withdraw his name. There are many who believe that this is so and that Mr. Platt's name will not go before the convention. Later Mr. Platt reiterated his refusal. As if to emphasize this latter view of the situation, Mr. Platt said further: "Not only will I refuse to accept the nomination, but I shall not in any way interfere with the candidates for governor. They must fight it out for themselves."

If reports be true the state organization will place Mr. Warner Miller on the outside of the convention. It is said, that Senator John Rames, who made the personal attack on Mr. Miller in the meeting of the New York state delegation at St. Louis, will be the chairman of the committee sitting in judgment upon Mr. Miller's claim. Upon the report of the committee on credentials in this convention, if it is adverse to Mr. Miller, there will be a fight in the convention, and if the convention acquiesces in such a decision, it is said by Mr. Miller's followers and the McKinley League, that there will be a separate convention.

The McKinley League was not asleep while the Platt boom was growing. Large placards containing extracts from the "report of the committee of twenty-five" under the caption "How Platt Carried New York County," were posted on a building directly facing the United States hotel, where most of the politicians are stopping. These extracts charged divers and sundry kinds of political fraud padding of enrollment.

Mr. John Milholland, who caused the placards to be erected had a boy attempt to nail some near Mr. Platt's headquarters in the hotel, but the proprietor interfered.

WATTERSON WOULD DECLINE.

Who His Favorites Are For Gold Democratic Nomination.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—A dispatch from Paris says that Colonel Henry Watterson in an interview said:

"If anything could make me bolt a third ticket in the presidential canvass in the United States it would be my own nomination."

Mr. Watterson's first choice is Carlisle, then General Palmer, Buckner, Bragg and Secretary Morton.

NEW OFFICERS CHOSEN.

The U. P. Young People Listened to Addresses on Sunday.

OMAHA, Aug. 24.—The United Presbyterian young people's national convention transacted no business Sunday, but held three sessions. Rev. J. T. McCrory, D. D., of Pittsburgh, spoke in the forenoon on "Christ in Our National Life."

In the afternoon a missionary meeting was held, and at night J. K. McClurkin, D. D., of Pittsburgh spoke on "The Church." The committee on nominations had decided upon the following: Tithe committee, C. P. Campbell, Chicago; William Woods, Monmouth, Ill.; Rev. J. A. Cosby, Aurora, Ill.; junior secretary, Rev. W. I. Wishart, Allegheny, Pa. The convention endorsed the nominations by unanimous vote.

Rev. W. R. Wilson of Mercer, Pa., spoke on "Essential Elements of Personal Conservation," and to conduct a conference on the question of the distribution of tithes. The question of tithes brought out a lengthy discussion as to the meaning of the biblical command to give a tenth. The general assembly has been memorialized to define the question.

surrounded to Cecil Rhodes.

BULUWAYO, Aug. 24.—The mission of Hon. Cecil Rhodes is reported to be a pronounced success. The natives have yielded and the war considered at an end. Cecil Rhodes inspired the confidence of the Matabele chiefs by going among them unarmed.

Nansen Going Southward.

CHRISTIANIA, Aug. 24.—It is reported that Dr. Nansen intends to conduct an expedition to the Arctic ocean in search of the South pole before returning to the Arctic regions.

WILL PART FRIENDS.

No Hard Feelings Between Cleveland and Smith.

THE PRESIDENT VERY SORRY.

Secretary Smith Had Given His Word Before the Chicago Convention That He Would Support the Nominee—He Felt He Couldn't Remain.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—Secretary Hoke Smith, whose resignation has been accepted by President Cleveland, will probably retire either just before, or immediately after the Indianapolis gold Democratic convention. Those who are familiar with the relations which exist between Mr. Cleveland and his cabinet say that there never has at any time been the least friction between Secretary Smith and the president or between any member of the cabinet and that the personal relations between the president and Mr. Smith are still most cordial.

Mr. Smith has enjoyed the respect and confidence of Mr. Cleveland at all times, and has been given the broadest latitude ever given any cabinet officer in the management of the affairs of his department. It is known to all the cabinet and to such persons as are in the president's confidence in this matter that it is with sincere regret that he sees Mr. Smith separate officially from the administration, but the secretary's sense of the fitness of things would not admit of his remaining in the cabinet after he found himself not in political accord with the president and the other members of the cabinet, and that he could not yield his opinion on account of his position or his personal friendship for the president.

The probability of Mr. Smith's retirement had been, in a measure anticipated ever since his paper, the Atlanta Journal, declared that it would support Bryan and Sewall.

Mr. Smith declines to discuss the subject, but it is known that the personal relations between the president and Mr. Smith have in no wise been disturbed. Mr. Smith's resignation, his friends say, grew out of his differences with the chief of the question of party policy and his delicate desire not to embarrass the president at such a time.

Beyond the question of his conception of party loyalty in acquiescing in the will of the majority, Mr. Smith during his campaign for the gold standard in Georgia against ex-Speaker Crisp had given a personal pledge that he would, if defeated, support the nominee of the convention. As an honorable man, his friends say, he felt it his duty to redeem that pledge. He intended, the president of his position and intentions, and to avoid embarrassments placed his resignation at his disposal. It is said that Mr. Cleveland re-monstrated. The correspondence on the subject, if published, would no doubt be very interesting, but it is doubtful whether it will ever be given out. It can be stated, however, with great positiveness that the step which Secretary Smith felt himself compelled to take has not in any way affected the warm regard the president and Mr. Smith entertained for each other.

There has been a good deal of gossip about Mr. Smith's successor. It seems altogether unlikely that John M. Reynolds, the assistant secretary, will be promoted. It is regarded as much more probable that a new man will be selected, probably from the middle west, Indiana, Illinois or Missouri. The name of ex-Governor Francis of Missouri, ex-Congressman Bynum of Indiana and ex-Congressman Ben Cable of Illinois are those around which gossip most persistently clings. All are pronounced gold Democrats.

MAJOR'S LETTER THIS WEEK.

Charles G. Dawes and Major Dick Call at Canton.

CANTON, O., Aug. 24.—Although Sunday was a cloudy rainy day Major and Mrs. McKinley took a short drive with National Committeeman Charles G.

Dawes, of the Chicago headquarters. He said the campaign work was now well begun and that there was an increasing demand for tariff literature. Major Dick, who was with Chairman Hanna at Cleveland and is now secretary at the Chicago national headquarters, also called. He says the Chicago headquarters are running smoothly. Major McKinley's letter of acceptance will not be published before Wednesday or Thursday. Two thousand farmers, mechanics and other citizens of New Castle, Ellwood and other parts of Lawrence county, Pa., visited Major McKinley yesterday.

Silver Notification to Bryan.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 24.—George A. Groot, chairman of the notification committee of the National Silver party convention, announces that the committee will assemble in Lincoln on Sept. 8 to notify Mr. Bryan of his nomination as the candidate of the Silver party.

CONGRESS TOO SLOW.

American Exhibitors Will Be at a Disadvantage at Paris.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—The French government is rapidly perfecting the details for the international exposition to be held in Paris in 1900 commemorating the birth of the century, and in this connection has asked the state department for the name of the commissioner general who will represent the United States and for such other information available as to the participation of this country.

To this Acting Secretary Rockhill has replied that the commissioner general has not been named, as the American congress took no steps at its recent session to provide for an American representation at the exposition. He expressed the belief, however, that the approaching session of congress will bring about an acceptance of the invitation of the French republic.

President Cleveland called the attention of congress to the invitation in his annual message last December, and expressed the most earnest hope that steps would be taken for an adequate representation by the United States. But congress acts slowly on these affairs, and no measure was considered, the idea being that there was plenty of time before 1900. It appears, however, that Great Britain, Germany and other leading powers have been quick to accept, and the French government is allocating space to these countries.

American exhibitors are beginning to make inquiry as to where their goods will go, but no answer can be given to them. The prospect is that the best space will be taken before the United States accepts the invitation and makes application for space. This was the case at the last exposition, when American exhibitors were at much disadvantage in point of location.

BIG STRIKE IN CHICAGO.

The Building Industry Tied Up to Help the Hodcarriers.

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—The Chicago Building Trades' council has kept the promise which it made to the union hodcarriers and has practically tied up the building industry in Chicago.

It was one of the quietest strikes in the history of Chicago for the number of men involved, and there was no more demonstration about any of the buildings than if the men had been quitting for a half holiday, instead of to coerce the contractors to increase their wages and recognize their union. The union hodcarriers number not far from 7,000 and their demands are now reinforced by union men to the number of 30,000.

SATURDAY'S LEAGUE GAMES.

Pittsburg, 8; Boston, 4.
Pittsburg, 6; Boston, 3.
Philadelphia, 9; St. Louis, 1.
Philadelphia, 5; St. Louis, 10.
Washington, 9; Cincinnati, 2.
Cleveland, 10; Baltimore, 3.
Chicago, 11; Brooklyn, 7.

Games Scheduled Today.

Cleveland at Baltimore; St. Louis at Philadelphia; Pittsburg at Boston; Chicago at Brooklyn; Louisville at New York and Cincinnati at Washington.

Standing of the Clubs.

W	L	P	W	L	P
Baltimore	70	32	686	Brooklyn	46	54
Cincinnati	69	33	676	Philadelphia	47	56
Cleveland	65	38	624	New York	46	56
Chicago	60	45	571	Wash.	38	62
Pittsburg	57	44	564	St. Louis	32	69
Boston	54	47	530	Louisville	26	72

Interstate Games Scheduled Today.

Toledo at Wheeling; Ft. Wayne at Washington; Jackson at New Castle and Saginaw at Youngstown.

Saturday's Interstate Games.

Wheeling, 6; Toledo, 15.
New Castle, 2; Jackson, 9.
Youngstown, 6; Saginaw, 1.

Interstate League Standing.

W	L	P	W	L	P
Youngstown	22	7	570	Ft. Wayne	13	43
Toledo	19	9	479	Saginaw	11	37
New Castle	15	13	536	Jackson	11	19
Wheeling	14	15	483	Wash.	8	18

A RECEIPTED BILL.

"Yune!"

"Well!"

"I tell you that what we have earned for the last month is but a drop in the bucket to our expenses. We are $20 in debt, including the doctor's bill!"

There were three of them—Maria, Euno, or Yune, as they called her, and a sick mother. Mrs. Merle was bedridden, and the girls worked to support her and keep together their little home.

The girls let one of the chambers to a lodger, and that helped to keep the roof over their heads. For the rest of their living, Yune taught the district school while Maria kept house, did sewing and braided straw.

"Oh, if we were only as rich as Mr. Glyndon!" said Yune.

Mr. Glyndon was the lodger.

"Do you suppose he would lend us some money until your next school quarter is up?"

Yune's beautiful brown eyes opened wide.

"I don't know, I am sure. Why, dare you ask him? He's so terribly reserved, you know, Maria."

"I think I will," said Maria.

No more was said of the anticipated plan, but the next night when Yune came from school Maria showed her the $20 received from Mr. Glyndon.

The next morning Yune started for school, as usual, when a quick step came behind her and the next moment Mr. Glyndon was at her side.

"Good morning, Miss Merle."

"Good morning, Mr. Glyndon."

"Miss Merle," was his next unsolicited remark, "I like your face. Will you marry me?"

Yune misunderstood. She did not take in the depth of his meaning when he said, "I like your face."

"Thank you, Mr. Glyndon, but I am not poor enough yet to sell my beauty. I wish you a good morning." And she turned down a crossroad.

The next morning Maria was ill—threatened with lung fever. Poor Yune was overwhelmed with her troubles. A week of weary care and exhausting labor for her passed, then Maria was out of danger and affairs began to get a little settled.

But it was a week of settling in a pecuniary way. They were penniless, and the doctor's bill for Maria had run up to $20. Now, the doctor had been a hard creditor of her father's. There was not a man in the village whom Yune had not rather be under obligations to—unless she equally regretted not being independent of Mr. Glyndon.

As she sat alone she thought suddenly of her watch—the little jeweled Geneva watch which had been her father's last gift to her. She could pawn it. The act was the crudest sacrilege, but she went to a wealthy man of the village and received $40 for it, with the agreement that it was to be redeemed within six months.

Mr. Glyndon had been very kind during Maria's illness. Totally ignoring Yune's abrupt refusal, he had done all in his power to relieve her of distress and labor. Studiously as she maintained her haughty, she could not but feel it. So, more sweetly than she might otherwise have done, she sought him to repay the amount of his loan.

"Miss Yune, I shall not receive that money. It was requested as a loan, but Maria must keep it in token of my admiration for her excellence as a sister and a daughter. I think she will do so. She is not so proud as you are, Yune."

Mr. Glyndon said the money down haughtily. "I prefer to repay the loan," she said, and turned to leave the room, and then she went to the doctor's.

Dr. Willard received her very pleasantly, and presented her with the bill receipted. "What does this mean, Dr. Willard?" she asked.

"I have been paid—the bill is discharged."

"By whom? How?"

"Did you not send the money through the postoffice last night, with word that you would call for the bill?"

"Certainly not!"

"Some one has done so. You have some unknown friend, Miss Merle."

Yune took the bill and turned homeward. On the way she thought of every relative or friend she had who would be likely to do her such a service. She could not satisfy herself before she reached home. There she told Maria the good news.

"We have but one such good friend as that, Yune."

"And who is that, pray?"

"Why, Mr. Glyndon, of course."

"Maria, do you suppose that he has paid that $20?" she cried.

"I have no doubt of it. How kind and good he is! And how can you help loving him, Yune? I should love him, I know, if it weren't for my Charley, whether he wanted me or not."

Yune sat silent. Soon after Maria went to bed. Still Yune sat alone in the silent sitting room thinking. Finally she got up, went up to Mr. Glyndon's room and knocked at the door. He opened it. She looked up into his kind, grave face.

"Mr. Glyndon, I have been very rude, and you are very kind. Will you forgive me?"

"Yes, and will you love me, Yune?"

"Do."

So joy and peace and prosperity dawned on the family. Yune keeps Dr. Willard's bill as the memento of how she was charmed.

—New York News.

LAUGHTER.

Has it Evolved From the Brutal Tell Over a Tortured Enemy?

Just as the hoof of the horse is the remnant of an original five toes, just as the pincel gland in man is now said to be the survival of a prehistoric eye on the top of the head, so, perhaps, this levity in regard to particular ailments (in others) may be the descendant of an aboriginal ferocity in man. It is a well known theory that what we call humor arose from the same source; that the first human laugh that ever woke the astonished echoes of gloomy primordial forests was not an expression of mirth, but exultation over the misery of a tortured enemy.

There is to this day something terrible in laughter. The laugh of madness or of cruelty is a sound more awful than that of the bitterest lamentations.

By means of that strange photograph that we call literature we can listen even now to the laughter of the dead, to the hearty guffaws or cynical titterings of generation after generation of bygone men and women, and if we are curious in such matters we can probe into the nature of the changes that have passed over the fashion of men's humor. For it has been said, not without the support of weighty cumulative evidence, that, as we penetrate further into the past, we find the sense of humor depending always more obviously and solely upon the enjoyment of the pain, misfortune, mortification or embarrassment of others. The sense of superiority was the sense of humor in our ancestors; or, in other words, vanity lay at the root of this, as of most other attributes of our bumptious species!

Putting ear to our phonograph, we catch the echoes of a strange and merry tumult; bo

The News Review

LEADING DAILY OF COLUMBIANA COUNTY.

PUBLISHED DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY BY THE NEWS REVIEW COMPANY.

HARRY PALMER, Manager and Proprietor.

(Entered as second class matter at the East Liverpool, O., postoffice.)

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:

(Postage free in United States and Canada.)

One Year in Advance $5.00

Three Months 1.50

By the Week .10

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, AUGUST 24.

PROTECTION
UNION LABEL

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
OF Ohio.

For Vice President,
GARRET A. HOBART,
OF New Jersey.

For Electors at Large,
ISAAC F. MACK,
ALBERT C. DOUGLASS,

For Secretary of State,
CHARLES KINNEY.

For Judge of Supreme Court,
MARSHALL J. WILLIAMS.

For Member of Board of Public Works,
FRANK HUFFMAN.

For Congress,
ROBERT W. TAYLOR.

For Judge of the Circuit Court,
J. B. BURROWS.

For Judge of Common Pleas Court,
F. M. SMITH.

For Probate Judge,
J. C. HOOPER.

For Clerk of Courts,
JOHN S. MUNTZ.

For Recorder,
ED. M. CROSSLER.

For Commissioner,
CHRIS. BOWMAN.

For Infirmity Director,
L. C. HOOPES.

For Coroner,
JOHN L. STRAUGHN.

THAT indorsement of Doctor Ikert only proves the more that our Democratic friends are jokers.

If McKinley fails to carry New York by an immense majority it is because Boss Platt has this year dispensed with his midsummer nap.

Eight hundred thousand railroad men will vote for McKinley according to the Railway Age. Pass along the news to Wellsville.

BUSINESS men in the south are for McKinley and honest money, while the people who think free silver means the free distribution of the white metal will vote for Bryan.

WHILE the millionaire silver miners are paying the expenses of the Democratic campaign, the free coinage organs are pointing to Republican headquarters and shouting, "Beware of the barrel."

THE demand for tariff literature is enormous, and the Republicans leaders are shipping thousands of documents into the west. The people are tired of silver, and want to hear something of the true issue.

BRYAN CAN EXPLAIN.

If Candidate Bryan should so far forget himself as to yield to the prayers of his friends and come to this place, he can interest the people by explaining a few points in his congressional career upon which no light has yet been shed. He can, with propriety and with no injury to his dignity, tell the operative potters why he voted for the cut in the crockery tariff, and lent his voice in forcing upon them a reduction in wages. He can tell why he smiled and seemed glad when their friends were before him in the ways and means committee hearings, and took especial delight in bulldozing the potters. Then he can become reminiscent, and incidentally clear up the mystery about his belief that a potter should not make $18 a week because his farmer friends in Nebraska cannot realize the same amount from their toil. This will be enough for the city, and he can turn his attention to the farmers. To them he can give his reason for supporting free wool, and why he should expect their votes after he aided in depriving them of many thousands of dollars. All these things interest East Liverpool. The people want to know the particulars. They have suffered because of Mr. Bryan's attitude toward them, and could spend a pleasant evening listening to his story of his failure as a statesman.

The festival given Saturday night by the Church of Christ was largely attended.

Advance Style of Fall Suits.

Advantages of Buying Early:

We buy our goods in advance of the season. By doing so we can take plenty of time to compare styles and prices, pick out the handsome patterns, and decide on the best qualities. We get just what we want and have it on hand just when we want it. We like the plan so well that we strongly recommend it to our customers; it will pay them for exactly the same reason that it pays us. The man who buys early gets a full Season's use of his clothes; he finds the suit very comfortable several weeks before he expected to need it, and he is usually better satisfied because he has taken time to make a careful selection.

FANCY SCOTCH MIXTURES.

Mixtures of Green, Brown, Grey, Red will be the sellers for the coming season, up to date goods. Made in Sack Coat, either 3 or 4 button Sack. Fly Front Coats and Vests are very popular. We have them also in Cutaway or Double-breasted Suits. These suits are made by the best manufacturers in the United States—houses that have a reputation all over the country—no Cheap John make do we carry. (Sweet Shop Make). Such goods we have no room for at any price. They are dear whatever price you pay for them. First place they are not sewed, they have no fit; you might as well wear your old suit, as after a week's wear you have an old suit. Buy reliable made goods, you will profit by it. It needs no argument. We will convince you on seeing the superiority of well-made suits at our store. The E. and M. Special Hat can't help but please you. It is a seller with us. See our Men's Stiff Hat. We sell at $8 and $1.48.

JOSEPH BROS.

PLATT FOR GOVERNOR.

New York Republicans Likely to Name Him.

HE CAN'T STEM THE TIDE HIMSELF.

The Sentiment Has Grown Beyond the Control of the Ex-Senator—He May Be Just Showing His Power—Warner Miller May Be Ousted.

SARATOGA, Aug. 24.—Thomas C. Platt will probably be the nominee of the Republican state convention for governor of New York, unless he can successfully combat a great and growing sentiment that has almost ceased to be a matter that Mr. Platt can control. His name will be presented to the convention and every other candidate will withdraw and he will be nominated without debate. Your correspondent showed this statement to Mr. Platt. He thought for a few minutes, ran his thin, almost effeminate hand through his beard and said slowly and distinctly: "I am not a candidate and I do not want the office."

"But, Mr. Platt, suppose that the convention is stampered for you?"

"I don't think it will be, I do not want the nomination. I prefer plain citizenship and I shall decline to stand for the nomination. I have told this to all the persons who have spoken to me about it."

It was, however, a significant fact that Edward Lauterbach and Lemuel E. Quigg were working among the delegates and Mr. Platt had not instructed them to do so. Ex-State Senator Vanocott was also advocating the nomination of Mr. Platt, and he asserted that Mr. Platt, while adverse to the nomination, would take it if the delegates offered it to him in the convention.

Lieutenant Governor Saxton said: "In my opinion the nomination will go to Mr. Platt. The tide has been set that way strongly, and I don't think Mr. Platt can stop it."

Mr. Hamilton Fish, who is a candidate for governor, said: "If Mr. Platt will stand for the nomination I will withdraw and second it. I am for Mr. Platt."

Mr. George W. Aldridge, who is also a candidate for governor, is credited with making a similar statement, and it is certain that if Mr. Platt's name is present all other candidates will withdraw.

THOMAS C. PLATT.

Congressman Quigg said: "Mr. Platt will be nominated by acclamation."

John Milholland, who is the leader of the "McKinley league" and a bitter opponent of Mr. Platt, said when asked what the attitude of his faction of the party would be if Mr. Platt were nominated: "It would not be a proper thing for me to say at this time what we shall do. I think from the looks of things that Mr. Platt will be nominated."

There is another story afloat. It is that Mr. Platt will allow the agitation in his behalf to proceed until tonight in order to demonstrate his popularity among the delegates and that then he would call upon his lieutenants to withdraw his name. There are many who believe that this is so and that Mr. Platt's name will not go before the convention. Later Mr. Platt reiterated his refusal. As if to emphasize this latter view of the situation, Mr. Platt said further: "Not only will I refuse to accept the nomination, but I shall not in any way interfere with the candidates for governor. They must fight it out for themselves."

If reports be true the state organization will place Mr. Warner Miller on the outside of the convention. It is said that Senator John Kaines, who made the personal attack on Mr. Miller in the meeting of the New York state delegation at St. Louis, will be the chairman of the committee sitting in judgment upon Mr. Miller's claim. Upon the report of the committee on credentials in this convention, if it is adverse to Mr. Miller, there will be a fight in the convention, and if the convention acquiesces in such a decision, it is said by Mr. Miller's followers and the McKinley League, that there will be a separate convention.

The McKinley League was not asleep while the Platt boom was growing. Large placards containing extracts from the "report of the committee of twenty-five" under the caption "How Platt Carried New York County," were posted on a building directly facing the United States hotel, where most of the politicians are stopping. These extracts charged divers and sundry kinds of political fraud padding of enrollments and such.

Mr. John Milholland, who caused the placards to be erected had a boy attempt to nail some near Mr. Platt's headquarters in the hotel, but the proprietor interfered.

WATTERSON WOULD DECLINE.

Who His Favorites Are For Gold Democratic Nomination.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—A dispatch from Paris says that Colonel Henry Watterson in an interview said:

"If anything could make me bolt a third ticket in the presidential canvass in the United States it would be my own nomination."

Mr. Watterson's first choice is Carlisle, then General Palmer, Buckner, Bragg and Secretary Morton.

NEW OFFICERS CHOSEN.

The U. P. Young People Listened to Addresses on Sunday.

OMAHA, Aug. 24.—The United Presbyterian young people's national convention transacted no business Sunday, but held three sessions. Rev. J. T. McCrory, D. D., of Pittsburgh, spoke in the forenoon on "Christ In Our National Life." In the afternoon a missionary meeting was held, and at night J. K. McClurkin, D. D., of Pittsburgh spoke on "The Church." The committee on nominations had decided upon the following: Tithe committee, C. P. Campbell, Chicago; William Woods, Month, Ill.; Rev. J. A. Cosby, Aurora, Ill.; junior secretary, Rev. W. I. Wishart, Allegheny, Pa. The convention endorsed the nominations by unanimous vote.

Rev. W. R. Wilson of Mercer, Pa., spoke on "Essential Elements of Personal Conservation," and to conduct a conference on the question of the distribution of tithes. The question of tithes brought out a lengthy discussion as to the meaning of the biblical command to give a tenth. The general assembly has been memorialized to define the question.

Surrounded to Cecil Rhodes.

BULUWAYO, Aug. 24.—The mission of Hon. Cecil Rhodes is reported to be a pronounced success. The natives have yielded and the war considered at an end. Cecil Rhodes inspired the confidence of the Matabele chiefs by going among them unarmed.

Nansen Going Southward.

CHRISTIANIA, Aug. 24.—It is reported that Dr. Nansen intends to conduct an expedition to the Arctic ocean in search of the South pole before returning to the Arctic regions.

WILL PART FRIENDS.

No Hard Feelings Between Cleveland and Smith.

THE PRESIDENT VERY SORRY.

Secretary Smith Had Given His Word Before the Chicago Convention That He Would Support the Nominee—He Felt He Couldn't Remain.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—Secretary Hoke Smith, whose resignation has been accepted by President Cleveland, will probably retire either just before, or immediately after the Indianapolis gold Democratic convention. Those who are familiar with the relations which exist between Mr. Cleveland and his cabinet say that there never has at any time been the least friction between HOKES SMITH.

Secretary Smith and the president or between any member of the cabinet and that the personal relations between the president and Mr. Smith are still most cordial.

Mr. Smith has enjoyed the respect and confidence of Mr. Cleveland at all times, and has been given the broadest latitude ever given any cabinet officer in the management of the affairs of his department. It is known to all the cabinet and to such persons as are in the president's confidence in this matter that it is with sincere regret that he sees Mr. Smith separate officially from the administration, but the secretary's sense of the fitness of things would not admit of his remaining in the cabinet after he found himself not in political accord with the president and the other members of the cabinet, and that he could not yield his opinion on account of his position or his personal friendship for the president.

The probability of Mr. Smith's retirement had been, in a measure anticipated ever since his paper, the Atlanta Journal, declared that it would support Bryan and Sewall.

Mr. Smith declines to discuss the subject, but it is known that the personal relations between the president and Mr. Smith have in no wise been disturbed. Mr. Smith's resignation, his friends say, grew out of his differences with his chief on the question of party policy and his delicate desire not to embarrass the president at such a time.

Beyond the question of his conception of party loyalty in acquiescing in the will of the majority, Mr. Smith during his campaign for the gold standard in Georgia against ex-Speaker Crisp had given a personal pledge that he would, if defeated, support the nominee of the convention. As an honorable man, his friends say, he felt it his duty to redeem that pledge. He informed the president of his position and intentions, and to avoid embarrassment placed his resignation at his disposal. It is said that Mr. Cleveland remonstrated. The correspondence on the subject, if published, would no doubt be very interesting, but it is doubtful whether it will ever be given out. It can be stated, however, with great positiveness that the step which Secretary Smith felt himself compelled to take has not in any way affected the warm regard the president and Mr. Smith entertained for each other.

There has been a good deal of gossip about Mr. Smith's successor. If several altogether unlikely that John M. Reynolds, the assistant secretary, will be promoted. It is regarded as much more probable that a new man will be selected, probably from the middle west, Indiana, Illinois or Missouri. The name of ex-Governor Francis of Missouri, ex-Congressman Bynum of Indiana and ex-Congressman Ben Cable of Illinois are those around which gossip most persistently clings. All are pronounced gold Democrats.

MAJOR'S LETTER THIS WEEK.

Charles G. Dawes and Major Dick Call at Canton.

CANTON, O., Aug. 24.—Although Sunday was a cloudy rainy day Major and Mrs. McKinley took a short drive with National Committeeman Charles G.

Dawes, of the Chicago headquarters. He said the campaign work was now well begun and that there was an increasing demand for tariff literature. Major Dick, who was with Chairman Hanna at Cleveland and is now secretary at the Chicago national headquarters, also called. He says the Chicago headquarters are running smoothly. Major McKinley's letter of acceptance will not be published before Wednesday or Thursday.

Two thousand farmers, mechanics and other citizens of New Castle, Ellwood and other parts of Lawrence county, Pa., visited Major McKinley yesterday.

Silver Notification to Bryan.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 24.—George A. Groot, chairman of the notification committee of the National Silver party convention, announces that the committee will assemble in Lincoln on Sept. 8 to notify Mr. Bryan of his nomination as the candidate of the Silver party.

CONGRESS TOO SLOW.

American Exhibitors Will Be at a Disadvantage at Paris.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—The French government is rapidly perfecting the details for the international exposition to be held in Paris in 1900 commemorating the birth of the century, and in this connection has asked the state department for the name of the commissioner general who will represent the United States and for such other information available as to the participation of this country.

To this Acting Secretary Rockhill has replied that the commissioner general has not been named, as the American congress took no steps at its recent session to provide for an American representation at the exposition. He expressed the belief, however, that the approaching session of congress will bring about an acceptance of the invitation of the French republic.

President Cleveland called the attention of congress to the invitation in his annual message last December, and expressed the most earnest hope that steps would be taken for an adequate representation by the United States. But congress acts slowly on these affairs, and no measure was considered, the idea being that there was plenty of time before 1900. It appears, however, that Great Britain, Germany and other leading powers have been quick to accept, and the French government is allotting space to these countries.

American exhibitors are beginning to make inquiry as to where their goods will go, but no answer can be given to them. The prospect is that the best space will be taken before the United States accepts the invitation and makes application for space. This was the case at the last exposition, when American exhibitors were at much disadvantage in point of location.

BIG STRIKE IN CHICAGO.

The Building Industry Tied Up to Help the Hodcarriers.

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—The Chicago Building Trades council has kept the promise which it made to the union hodcarriers and has practically tied up the building industry in Chicago.

It was one of the quietest strikes in the history of Chicago for the number of men involved, and there was no more demonstration about any of the buildings than if the men had been quitting for a half holiday, instead of to coerce the contractors to increase their wages and recognize their union. The union hodcarriers number not far from 7,000 and their demands are now reinforced by union men to the number of 30,000.

SATURDAY'S LEAGUE GAMES.

Pittsburg, 8; Boston, 4.
Pittsburg, 6; Boston, 3.
Philadelphia, 5; St. Louis, 1.
Philadelphia, 5; St. Louis, 10.
Washington, 9; Cincinnati, 2.
Cleveland, 10; Baltimore, 3.
Chicago, 11; Brooklyn, 7.

Games Scheduled Today.

Cleveland at Baltimore; St. Louis at Philadelphia; Pittsburg at Boston; Chicago at Brooklyn; Louisville at New York and Cincinnati at Washington.

Standing of the Clubs.

W	L	Pe	W	L	Pe
Baltimore	70	32	686	Brooklyn	46	54
Cincinnati	69	33	675	Phila.	47	56
Cleveland	68	38	624	New York	46	56
Chicago	69	45	571	Wash.	38	62
Pittsburg	57	44	504	St. Louis	32	68
Boston	54	47	530	Louisville	26	72

Interstate Games Scheduled Today.

Toledo at Wheeling; Ft. Wayne at Washington; Jackson at New Castle and Saginaw at Youngstown.

Saturday's Interstate Games.

Wheeling, 6; Toledo, 15.
New Castle, 2; Jackson, 9.
Youngstown, 6; Saginaw, 1.

Interstate League Standing.

W	L	Pe	W	L	Pe
Youngstown	22	7	759	Ft. Wayne	13	481
Toledo	19	9	679	Saginaw	11	372
New Castle	15	13	536	Jackson	11	39
Wheeling	14	15	463	Wash.	8	328

A RECEIPTED BILL.

"Yune!"

"Well!"

"I tell you that what we have earned for the last month is but a drop in the bucket to our expenses. We are $30 in debt, including the doctor's bill!"

There were three of them—Maria, Eynice, or Yune, as they called her, and a sick mother. Mrs. Merle was bedridden, and the girls worked to support her and keep together their little home.

The girls let one of the chambers to a lodger, and that helped to keep the roof over their heads. For the rest of their living, Yune taught the district school while Maria kept house, did sewing and braided straw.

"Oh, if we were only as rich as Mr. Glyndon!" said Yune.

Mr. Glyndon was the lodger.

"Do you suppose he would lend us some money until your next school quarter is up?"

Yune's beautiful brown eyes opened wide.

"I don't know, I am sure. Why, dare you ask him? He's so terribly reserved, you know, Maria."

"I think I will," said Maria.

No more was said of the anticipated plan, but the next night when Yune came from school Maria showed her the $20 received from Mr. Glyndon.

The next morning Yune started for school, as usual, when a quick step came behind her and the next moment Mr. Glyndon was at her side.

"Good morning, Miss Merle."

"Good morning, Mr. Glyndon."

"Miss Merle," was his next unsolicited remark, "I like your face. Will you marry me?"

Yune misunderstood. She did not take in the depth of his meaning when he said, "I like your face."

"Thank you, Mr. Glyndon, but I am not poor enough yet to sell my beauty. I wish you a good morning." And she turned down a crossroad.

The next morning Maria was ill—threatened with lung fever. Poor Yune was overwhelmed with her troubles. A week of weary care and exhausting labor for her passed, then Maria was out of danger and affairs began to get a little settled.

But it was a woe-filled settling in a pecuniary way. They were penniless, and the doctor's bills for Maria had run up to $20.

Now, the doctor had been a hard creditor of her father's. There was not a man in the village whom Yune had not rather been under obligations to—unless she equally regretted not being independent of Mr. Glyndon.

As she sat alone she thought suddenly of her watch—the little jeweled Geneva watch which had been her father's last gift to her. She could pawn it. The act was a cruel sacrifice, but she went to a wealthy man of the village and received $40 for it, with the agreement that it was to be redeemed within six months.

Mr. Glyndon had been very kind during Maria's illness. Totally ignoring Yune's abrupt repulse, he had done all in his power to relieve her of distress and labor. Studiously as she maintained her hauteur, she could not but feel it. So, more sweetly than she might otherwise have done, she sought him to repay the amount of his loan.

"Miss Yune, I shall not receive that money. It was requested as a loan, but Maria must keep it in token of my admiration for her excellence as a sister and a daughter. I think she will do so. She is not so proud as you are, Yune."

Yune laid the money down haughtily.

"I prefer to repay the loan," she said, and turned to leave the room, and then she went to the doctor's.

Dr. Willard received her very pleasantly, and presented her with the bill receipted.

"What does this mean, Dr. Willard?" she asked.

"I have been paid—the bill is discharged."

"By whom? How?"

"Did you not send the money through the postoffice last night, with word that you would call for the bill?"

"Certainly not!"

"Some one has done so. You have some unknown friend, Miss Merle."

Yune took the bill and turned homeward. On the way she thought of every relative or friend she had who would be likely to do her such a service. She could not satisfy herself before she reached home. There she told Maria the good news.

"We have but one such good friend as that, Yune."

"And who is that, pray?"

"Why, Mr. Glyndon, of course."

"Maria, do you suppose that he has paid that $20?"

"I have no doubt of it. How kind and good he is! And how can you help loving him, Yune? I should love him, I know, if it weren't for my Charley, whether he wanted me or not."

Yune sat silent. Soon after Maria went to bed. Still Yune sat alone in the silent sitting room thinking. Finally she got up, went up to Mr. Glyndon's room and knocked at the door. He opened it. She looked up into his kind, grave face.

"Mr. Glyndon, I have been very rude, and you are very kind. Will you forgive me?"

"Yes, and will you love me, Yune?"

"I do."

So joy and peace and prosperity dawned on the family. Yune keeps Dr. Willard's bill as the memento of how she was checked.

LAUGHTER.

Has it Evolved From the Brutal Yell Over a Tortured Enemy?

Just as the hock of the horse is the remnant of an original five toes, just as the pincal gland in man is now said to be the survival of a prehistoric eye on the top of the head, so, perhaps, this levity in regard to particular ailments (in others) may be the descendant of an aboriginal ferocity in man. It is a well known theory

Special Sale for Ten Days.

Saturday Morning, Aug. 22, we will start a SPECIAL SALE to clear up all the odds and ends of the greatest clearance sale on record, as we must close out lots of shoes yet to make room for fall stock. The prices will sell the balance if you will but call. We will save you from 25 cts. to $2.00 on each pair.

Leading Shoe House, 220 Diamond. W. H. GASS.

TO WIN BY THE TORCH

The Rebels Propose to Sweep Cuba Bare.

WILL WIPE OUT SPAIN'S INCOME.

The Conversion of the Island Into a Wilderness Will Also Compel Spain to Withdraw Her Armies—Gomez Given Strong Instructions.

New York, Aug. 24.—A campaign of total destruction of property will shortly be inaugurated in Cuba by the Cubans. The provisional government of the republic have so ordained in a proclamation dated in the province of Santiago. By this destruction a two-fold object is to be gained. The loss of an immense cash income is expected to shorten Spain's warfare and the conversion of the island into a wilderness to compel her to withdraw her armies.

All classes of property, whether foreign owned or not, are to be treated alike, as all pay tribute to Spain. The destruction is laid entirely on the need of the further and complete ruin for Spain of the money-producing power of Cuba.

The proclamation further prohibits any preparation for the coming sugar season, either in planting, cultivation or care of the sugar cane; forbids cane grinding during the coming season and holds all planters who disobey all or any part of the proclamation to be traitors subject to the penalty of death.

The property of all disloyers is to be confiscated and sold at the close of the war to satisfy the indebtedness of the republic. Confiscation may, by this proclamation be applied to the houses and lands of those who merely have the "intention" to violate its provisions. This ultra Spanish part of this Cuban fiat is probably an oversight and will soon be erased.

General Gomez is commanded to notify all the military sub-chiefs to begin at once the rigid enforcement of these provisions.

RIOTING IN SPAIN.

The Populace Tried to Keep Troops From Going to Cuba.

BARCELONA, Aug. 24.—After a stormy and troubled day and many minor conflicts between the police and the populace occurred, the troops designed to reinforce the Spanish army in Cuba embarked on board the boats in the harbor. The police finally succeeded in destroying the placards, which had been posted calling upon the people and the soldiers to revolt. A large number of women incited to disorder by the supporters of the Cuban insurgents made a pronounced demonstration against the departure of the troops for Cuba.

A manifesto has been scattered broadcast urging the troops to refuse to embark and telling them to resist all attempts to compel them to leave Spain. The people were also urged to rebel against the government, thus preventing the departure of the soldiers.

DIAMOND MATCH SUFFERED.

It Is Now Known $700,000 Was Lost In the Moore's Failure.

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—The Diamond Match company and the New York Biscuit company were both involved in the failure of the Moore Brothers. The statement is now made public that the Diamond Match company purchased on a margin of $50 a share 14,000 shares of its own capital stock. The New York Biscuit company has purchased 3,000 shares of its capital stock, which was bought at prices ranging from $90 to $100. The Diamond Match company will, it is said, seek to evade responsibility on its purchase of match stock, and will deny liabilities larger than the $700,000 it has used from its surplus as margin.

If the present intention of people interested in the Diamond Match company are carried out that company will lose absolutely $700,000 as a result of the speculative deal in this stock carried on by the Moore Brothers.

As to the New York Biscuit company, that corporation will fare much better, as a result of its being entangled in the deal. It now holds in its treasury the $300,000 worth of stock counted at par value.

WILL LUNCH WITH HILL.

Bryan Goes to Visit Democratic Leaders Today.

UPPER RED HOOK, N. Y., Aug. 24.—Today Mr. Bryan went to Winnsboro, N. C., to visit with the leaders of the party organization in this state, and to discuss with them the plans for the campaign. He will meet other prominent Democrats at the cities up the state which he is to visit, and before he leaves New York will know what measure of support he is to receive from the leaders in this state.

The fact that William J. Bryan, Democratic candidate for the presidency, will lunch with Senator Hill, the leader of the party organization in this state, when it became known to the little party of politicians inhabiting the Red Hook hotel, inspired more anticipatory discussion among them than any one incident of the candidate's eastern trip. Every one assumes that Senator Hill has resolved to support the nominee of the party else, they argue, he would hardly invite him to sit at his table, and the lunch is taken as a practical announcement of Hill's determination which is expected to be followed by a more formal declaration of the senator's attitude. Mr. Bryan will arrive at Albany tomorrow afternoon and will have two hours for refreshment before the speech which he is billed to make. He will spend two hours, according to the program which has been arranged for him, at Wolfert's Roost, the handsome residence which Senator Hill bought of Fritz Emmett, the actor.

This visit having been arranged that the Democratic candidate and the senator may come to an understanding if they have not already done so, will mark a distinct epoch in the campaign. The fact of the invitation from Senator Hill, which message comes it is understood, through Chairman Hinkley of the state committee, is taken by the politicians here as an answer to the question, which has stirred the state since the day of the Chicago convention, whether Senator Hill will support the ticket.

Mr. Bryan went to church Sunday at the Dutch Reformed church. After the services the ministers and members of the congregation pressed about Mr. Bryan to shake his hand. A large party of wheelmen rode 17 miles from Hudson in the afternoon to see the candidate, and were introduced by one of their members, former District Attorney McCormick of Columbia county.

Mr. Bryan's attention was called to a statement by the president of the Chautauqua assembly contradicting the report that he would make a speech there, and he said:

"I shall not speak there. Being interested in Chautauqua work my wife and I will avail ourselves of the opportunity to see the parent association. The work of the association is non-partisan and the president is quite right in saying that neither candidate should speak there unless both are invited."

HOBBART WON'T SPEAK.

He Says Neither He Nor McKinley Will Stump.

HOPATONING, N. J., Aug. 24.—"Many thousands Democrats," said Garrett A. Hobart, Republican vice presidential nominee, "who are hesitating to follow their party leaders and inclining to put patriotism above party. In my letter accepting the vice presidential nomination of the Republican party which I have here and which will probably be made public after Major McKinley has decided to give out his letter, I will devote considerable attention to them."

"For this reason I must decline to give my views in extent as to the right sort of argument to be addressed to Democrats this year. I shall make no campaign speeches and do not expect that Major McKinley will. Were he to do so his opponent would probably follow in his tracks, and would no doubt delight to follow in a cart where Major McKinley had preceded in a palace car, contrasting the two for the sake of argument."

A River Steamer Wrecked.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 24.—The Anchor line steamer City of Hickman, from St. Louis to New Orleans, struck an obstruction at Island Forty. A big hole was torn in her bottom and the officers beached her to prevent her sinking. All of the passengers were taken off by the Chickasaw and brought to this city. She is valued at $50,000. Insurance, $20,000.

PITH OF THE NEWS.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Damrosch are at Stanwood, the Blaine home at Bar Harbor, Me.

Martha Wagner, German thief, was pardoned by Governor Stone of Missouri, upon the servant who cares for the wheels of the young princess and princesses of the title of sergeant bismarck. His costume is a scarlet and gold coat adorned with chevrons, buckskin breeches, top boots and a silk hat.

A hidden (Mo.) woman followed her husband to the rockpile after he had been heavily fined in the police court for beating her, and sat there and fanned him while he worked out his sentence.

Elizabeth Seward of Denver, the only woman (Miss) in the United States, employs from eight to ten men and is assisted by her 25-year-old daughter.

Queen Anne of Portugal has been devoting much of her time to an attempt to discover an anti-fat pill, in order to stay the tendency to extreme corpulence which has been threatening to disfigure her husband.

A prospector who, with a companion, bought a claim at Goler on the Mojave desert, N. M., for $80, found a few days afterward a $1,614 gold nugget in it.

A colored man of Indianapolis has been arrested for the eighth time for stealing oats. He never steals anything else, and he has come to be known as "Oats Powell."

A public meeting of the brotherhoods of all the railroad men will be held at Harrison Park Casino, Terre Haute. All the chiefs will be present.

The Colorado state board of health in its annual report holds it a duty to stop the indiscriminate transportation of sick people and proposes a system of permits for invalids.

DAMAGED BY A HURRICANE.

Towns in Ohio and Indiana Report Great Destruction.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 24.—Specials report the effects of the hurricane from 11 Indiana and Ohio towns as follows:

Barns and other buildings were burned by lightning at New Bremen and Bryan, O.; also at Anderson, Brownstown and Winchester, Ind.

At Delphos, O., Neel Bliss, a young school teacher, was struck by lightning and killed.

At Rensselaer, Ind., the speaking in the Republican tabernacle was adjourned. The audience of 2,000 had scarcely left the tabernacle when it was crushed to the earth by the winds. Damage by wind and lightning are reported at Warsaw, Valparaiso, Albion and Elwood, Ind., in which houses and barns were destroyed by lightning.

At Elwood, Ind., Mrs. Mary Quinn and Rev. T. J. Bliss were struck by lightning and dangerously hurt. At Albion, Ind., a young man, name not given, was killed by lightning in a barn. Three lives are reported lost by lightning near Hammond, Ind., but names are not given.

The wind moved about 45 miles an hour for nearly 10 minutes, in Cincinnati. Numerous houses all over the city were unroofed. No casualties are yet reported. Numerous boats were capsized at the Lagoon and their occupants were rescued with difficulty. There was a panic on the steamer Island Queen from Coney Island, among the 2,000 passengers. The vessel was blown around and around in the river several times before she could make a landing.

HAPPENED IN THIS STATE.

John McCoy, a farmer of Wooster, was crushed to death while at work in his barn Friday night.

George G. Schaeffer, a grocer and councilman of Akron, assigned Assets, $8,000; liabilities, $4,000.

While attending a circus at Alliance Frank Swope was attacked by a lioness and badly lacerated.

The M. E. church at Middletown has petitioned for the return of Dr. William Kunyan as pastor.

The Union rolling mill, employing 500 hands, has been shut down for an indefinite period at Cleveland.

During a heavy rainstorm the son of D. M. Bliss, living west of Lima, was struck by lightning and instantly killed.

Miss Anna Kendall, a schoolteacher, aged 29 years, has disappeared from her home at Locust Grove, four miles north of Peebles.

Julius Rentski, who killed one man and wounded four with a knife during a riot at Dillonville, was captured in Cleveland.

The cornerstone of St. John's English Evangelical Lutheran church, on St. Clair street, Dayton, will be laid next Sunday afternoon.

Oscar Wellott, an oil well driller, was burned to death near Lima by the gas jet from the well which he was working igniting and enveloping him.

Frank Brennan, a Baltimore and Ohio brakeman, had his foot cut off at Somerset on the Newark and Stratsville division. He caught his foot in a guard rail and could not extricate himself.

The six Toledo aldermen who were convicted of bribery in 1892, were restored to citizenship by Governor Bushnell. The six aldermen are Ben O. Manchester, Charles Neundorff, Frank C. Tanner, William G. Gill, John Daley and George W. Doner.

E. L. Hill, R. P. Murphy, James Doyle and John Jones have been arrested, charged with burglarizing the Adams Express office, John Kane's hardware store and J. Stanton Harris' general merchandise store on the night of Aug. 20, at Caldwell.

Mrs. Charles Rhue was fatally burned at Lima. She was working over a gas fire, when her clothes were ignited, and in an instant her body was enveloped in flames. She rushed out into the yard, where assistance reached her, and the flames were extinguished.

Secretary Bishop of the state board of arbitration is having difficulty in ascertaining the addresses of officers of the Knights of Labor unions in this state, in view of sending them copies of the arbitration laws. The secretary-treasurer of the organization declines to furnish the names, saying the constitution of the organization forbids.

Every preparation is now being made for the organization in Dayton of a professional league club to enter the Western League next year. Dayton can get a place in the league upon the payment of a franchise, but is holding off, fully expecting to take the place of either Grand Rapids or Columbus. The local nine will be selected with that object.

The coach department of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton shops, at Dayton, has burned, also the freight car department building, with many freight cars, one baggage, one coach and one sleeper. The whole plant was threatened, but the fire was checked with a loss of $60,000. Seventy-five men were thrown out of work, and they lost all their tools.

Chairman Hanna in Boston.

BOSTON, Aug. 24.—Hon. Mark A. Hanna, chairman of the Republican national committee, arrived in Boston, after visiting Beverly farms, where he was the guest of his brother-in-law, J. H. Rhodes. He visited the Republican state headquarters.

LOCAL GREGITIES.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. George Miller, of Lincoln avenue, a daughter.

The Stars and Association club are playing ball in Wellsville this afternoon.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walcott, of Bradshaw avenue, a daughter.

The family of Joseph Chetwynd will move today from Spring Grove to the city.

Mrs. Lonnie Thomas and daughter, Miss Hazel, are visiting relatives in Rochester.

Will Till is lying very ill at his home near Spring Grove with an abscess in his left lung.

The Niagara Falls excursionists arrived home on the morning train, and report a most enjoyable trip.

Henry W. Aufderheide, a glassworker, went to Erie yesterday to spend a week in camp with a Pittsburg club.

Charles Bowers and Harry Deidrick went to Beaver this morning, and will spend two days fishing in the river.

George H. Owen sold the Webber property on Saturday, for the Enoch Riley heirs to Thomas Forster for $3,000.

The case of W. H. Gass against John P. Hickey was to have been tried in Squire Morley's court this morning, but has again been postponed, this time indefinitely.

One hundred very neat and artistic badges will be ordered by Trades council. They will be worn on Labor Day and other occasions.

A team from the still works played a game of ball Saturday afternoon against a nine of farmers living north of the city. The country cousins won by a score of 3 to 11.

The Crescents, of Wellsville, defeated the Toronto team Saturday afternoon on the grounds of the former club by a score of 6 to 5. McCurran and Finch, of this city, played with the Crescents.

Those from this city who attended the harvest home picnic at Shelton's, Saturday, say it was attended by one of the largest crowds that ever thronged the grounds on an occasion of this kind.

A horse driven by a farmer living a mile north of the city dropped dead on Lisbon road within the corporate limits, Saturday afternoon. Sanitary Policeman King was notified, and had the animal buried.

Jack Tracy and Joseph Pollack came from Akron Saturday, and spent Sunday with friends here. They are employed in the pottery at that place, and say the pottery is being operated to its fullest capacity.

A hot political argument took place on Sixth street Saturday evening, and a large crowd surrounded the principals. Officer Hawn moved them from the curbstone, but they continued it in the street until the band came along.

The marriage of Mr. Edward Talbot and Miss Myrtle Wright, well known young people of the West End, as announced some time ago in the News Review, will take place this evening. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. C. W. Huffer.

The Jolly Bachelors are still in camp on Beaver creek, and every Sunday morning visitors from the city call there. The boys are having a pleasant time, and are the picture of good health. The camp will not be broken until cold weather sets in.

The river is closed owing to the low stage of water, but it is not thought this condition will last very long as the fall rise is expected soon. Packets have not passed this place since Saturday, and a small amount of freight is lying at the wharf ready for shipment.

During the minstrel performance in the Bijou theatre at Pittsburgh, Saturday evening, the name of McKinley was mentioned, and the audience immediately responded with deafening applause. The name of President Cleveland provoked derisive laughter.

A man, considerably under the influence of whisky, created some excitement Saturday evening at the corner of Fourth and Washington streets by falling into a cellar way. Strange to say, he was not injured and scrambled out muttering vile imprecations on every thing in general.

Henry Carl Dangler is in Allegheny, and will operate a small art pottery there in addition to the plant in Baltimore. Mr. Dangler says his plans are about completed, and it will be but a short time until matters assume tangible form. A number of skilled workmen of this city have been engaged to work in the Baltimore plant.

Chief Johnson respectfully asks all people who chew tobacco to leave their scrap at home when next they congregate in the council chamber. City hall has been recently the scene of several gatherings, and it looked more like a fashionable pig pen the next morning than anything the chief can think of.

Spring Grove campground has a large hero. Saturday evening when the storm came up his wife arose and started to put down a window, when it slipped from her hands. It came down with a crash, and the husband, thinking a burglar was trying to enter the cottage, cried in a loud voice, and grabbing his revolver ran to the window, when his wife asked him what was the matter. He now declares burglars can tear down the house before he tries to prevent them.

The Final Days

of our semi-annual clearance sale are close at hand, and better bargains than at any time during this sale are at your disposal.

All Summer Shoes must go. Look at these prices, and then the shoes, and we're sure of a sale:

Misses Tan Shoes, button or lace, dark or light color, have been $2.00, $1.75, $1.50, $1.25.

Now 98 cts.

Boys' Tan Shoes, heel and spring heel.

Now 98 cts.

Women's Tan Shoes, button and lace, needle toes.

98 cts. and $1.48.

Women's Oxford Ties, black and brown, button, lace and congress, have been $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00.

98 cts. and $1.48.

Women's Shoes, something entirely new, extreme stiletto toe, patent heel foxing, button and lace, were $3.00.

Now $2.18.

Men's Patent Leather Shoes, 50 pairs, odds and ends, were $3.00.

Now $2.50.

Bendheim's.

K. OF P. ENCAMPMENT.

Great Crowds of Visitors—The Ceremonies Today.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 24.—Great crowds of visitors were attracted to the Knights of Pythias encampment Sunday, it being estimated that 50,000 spectators witnessed the dress parade of the Second Ohio regiment in the afternoon.

This afternoon Director General Day of the centennial commission, formally turned over the camp to Major General Carnahan.

Last evening many of the visiting Knights attended service at the Epworth Memorial M. E. church and listened to an appropriate sermon by the pastor.

Among the attractions at the camp is Lafayette, Ind., division of the uniform rank which has won more prizes than any other division in the country, even though it has not competed in prize drills in eight years. There is also present the crack division from Hastings, Mich. Both of these divisions will be in the parade and competitive drill.

Major General Carnahan, in speaking of the Knights as a military organization, said it was a part of the unwritten law of the order that the Knights should respond to the call of the government necessary to repel an invasion by a foreign foe. The Knights were not in any sense gun-drammen, he said, and they would not take part in internal dissensions unless it was necessary to preserve order and uphold the laws.

Supreme Chancellor Richie, in speaking of the policy of the order, said there would probably be no change. "The same lessons that it teaches men today," he said, "will be good for men a thousand years hence. No great question of policy will be debated at the present session of the supreme lodge. The German question and the saloon question were both finally settled and in a definite, decided and plain manner."

The Rathbone Sisters, one of the auxiliary orders of Pythianism, has its headquarters at the Weddell House. The most important business to come before its meeting is the election of a supreme senior. The leading candidates for the place are Mrs. J. B. S. Neubert of Kansas City and Mrs. Nellie Scattergood of Michigan, and some lively electioneering in their behalf is already going on.

NO WORD FROM CLEVELAND

Leader Bynum of the Gold Democrat Movement Denies It.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 24.—In discussing political developments from a gold standard standpoint, it was suggested to ex-Congressman Bynum, that the press dispatches have it that he has received a letter from President Cleveland advising against the nomination of a third ticket and approving a platform of principles without a ticket.

"I have not received a letter from Mr. Cleveland," said Mr. Bynum, "nor have I received an intimation from him either directly or indirectly as to what his views are. I do not believe that Mr. Cleveland will have a word to say either now or during the convention as to his preference."

ALL THE PEOPLE

SAVE MONEY

When they Purchase Groceries of

HUNTSMAN

You will find all the necessities of life, first class goods, at reasonable prices. It will pay you to deal with Huntsman. All seasonable fruits and vegetables. Ask for Marvin's celebrated.

Quaker Bread.

Market and Fourth Sts.

HUNTSMAN.

FEATHERBONE CORSETS AND WAISTS.

Correct Shapes

Latest Styles

Best Materials

Artistic Effects

Reasonable Prices

Most Comfortable

28 Styles.

Medium,

Long and Short Lengths.

Look for above Trade Mark on End Label of Each Box.

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

TRADE MARK

DAVID RUYER, President.
J. M. KELLY, Vice President.
N. G. MACDONALD, Cashier.
H. H. BLYTHE, Assistant Cashier.

Board of Directors:
David Boyce W. L. Thompson.
J. M. Kelly Wm. H. Vodrey.
Robert Hall B. O. Simms.
John O. Thompson.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

OF EAST LIVERPOOL.

Capital.....$100,000

Surplus and Earnings. 40,000

GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS.

Invite Business and Personal Accounts

Special Sale for Ten Days.

Saturday Morning, Aug. 22, we will start a SPECIAL SALE to clear up all the odds and ends of the greatest clearance sale on record, as we must close out lots of shoes yet to make room for fall stock. The prices will sell the balance if you will but call. We will save you from 25 cts. to $2.00 on each pair.

Leading Shoe House, W. H. GASS.
220 Diamond.

TO WIN BY THE TORCH

The Rebels Propose to Sweep Cuba Bare.

WILL WIPE OUT SPAIN'S INCOME.

The Conversion of the Island Into a Wilderness Will Also Compel Spain to Withdraw Her Armies—Gomez Given Strong Instructions.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—A campaign of total destruction of property will shortly be inaugurated in Cuba by the Cubans. The provisional government of the republic have so ordained in a proclamation dated in the province of Santiago. By this destruction a two-fold object is to be gained. The loss of an immense cash income is expected to shorten Spain's warfare and the conversion of the island into a wilderness to compel her to withdraw her armies.

All classes of property, whether foreign owned or not, are to be treated alike, as all pay tribute to Spain. The destruction is laid entirely on the need of the further and complete ruin for Spain of the money-producing power of Cuba.

The proclamation further prohibits any preparation for the coming sugar season, either in planting, cultivation or care of the sugar cane, forbids cane grinding during the coming season and holds all planters who disobey all or any part of the proclamation to be traitors subject to the penalty of death.

The property of all disloyals is to be confiscated and sold at the close of the war to satisfy the indebtedness of the republic. Confiscation may, by this proclamation be applied to the house and lands of those who merely have the "intention" to violate its provisions. This ultra Spanish part of this Cuban fiat is probably an oversight and will soon be erased.

General Gomez is commanded to notify all the military sub-chiefs to begin at once the rigid enforcement of these provisions.

RIOTING IN SPAIN.
The populace tried to keep troops from going to Cuba.

BARCELONA, Aug. 24.—After a stormy and troubled day and many minor conflicts between the police and the populace occurred, the troops designed to reinforce the Spanish army in Cuba embarked on board the boats in the harbor. The police finally succeeded in destroying the placards, which had been posted calling upon the people and the soldiers to revolt. A large number of women incited to disorder by the supporters of the Cuban insurgents made a pronounced demonstration against the departure of the troops for Cuba.

A manifesto has been scattered broadcast urging the troops to refuse to embark and telling them to resist all attempts to compel them to leave Spain. The people were also urged to rebel against the government, thus preventing the departure of the soldiers.

DIAMOND MATCH SUFFERED.

It is Now Known $700,000 Was Lost in the Moore's Failure.

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—The Diamond Match company and the New York Biscuit company were both involved in the failure of the Moore Brothers. The statement is now made public that the Diamond Match company purchased on a margin of $50 a share 14,000 shares of its own capital stock. The New York Biscuit company has purchased 3,000 shares of its capital stock, which was bought at prices ranging from $90 to $100. The Diamond Match company will, it is said, seek to evade responsibility on its purchase of match stock, and will deny liabilities larger than the $700,000 it has used from its surplus as margin.

If the present intention of people interested in the Diamond Match company are carried out that company will lose absolutely $700,000 as a result of the speculative deal in this stock carried on by the Moore Brothers.

As to the New York Biscuit company, that corporation will fare much better, as a result of its being entangled in the deal. It now holds in its treasury the $300,000 worth of stock counted at par value.

WILL LUNCH WITH HILL.

Bryan Goes to Visit Democratic Leaders Today.

UPPER RED HOOK, N. Y., Aug. 24.—Today Mr. Bryan went to Winnsboro, N. Y., in the Catskills, to pass the night with State Chairman Hinkley and other party managers of the state organization and to discuss with them the plans for the campaign. He will meet other prominent Democrats at the cities upon the state which he is to visit, and before he leaves New York will know what measure of support he is to receive from the leaders in this state.

The fact that William J. Bryan Democratic candidate for the presidency, will lunch with Senator Hill the leader of the party organization in this state, when it became known to the little party of politicians inhabiting the Red Hook hotel, inspired more anticipatory discussion among them than any other incident of the candidate's eastern trip.

Every one assumes that Senator Hill has resolved to support the nominee of the party else, they argue, he would hardly invite him to sit at his table, and the lunch is taken as a practical announcement of Hill's determination which is expected to be followed by a more formal declaration of the senator's attitude. Mr. Bryan will arrive at Albany tomorrow afternoon and will have two hours for refreshment before the speech which he is billed to make. He will spend two hours, according to the program which has been arranged for him, at Willet's Roost, the handsome residence which Senator Hill bought of Fritz Emmett, the actor.

This visit having been arranged that the Democratic candidate and the senator may come to an understanding if they have not already done so, will mark a distinct epoch in the campaign. The fact of the invitation from Senator Hill, which message comes it is understood, through Chairman Hinkley of the state committee, is taken by the politicians here as an answer to the question, which has stirred the state since the day of the Chicago convention, whether Senator Hill will support the ticket.

Mr. Bryan went to church Sunday at the Dutch Reformed church.

After the services the ministers and members of the congregation pressed about Mr. Bryan to shake his hand. A large party of wheelmen rode 17 miles from Hudson in the afternoon to see the candidate, and were introduced by one of their members, former District Attorney McCormick of Columbia county.

Mr. Bryan's attention was called to a statement by the president of the Chautauqua assembly contradicting the report that he would make a speech there, and he said:

"I shall not speak there. Being interested in Chautauqua work my wife and I will avail ourselves of the opportunity to see the parent association. The work of the association is non-partisan and the president is quite right in saying that neither candidate should speak there unless both are invited."

HOBBART WON'T SPEAK.

He Says Neither He Nor McKinley Will Stamp.

HOPATONING, N. J., Aug. 24.—"Many thousand Democrats," said Garrett A. Hobart, Republican vice presidential nominee, "who are hesitating to follow their party leaders and inclining to put patriotism above party. In my letter accepting the vice presidential nomination of the Republican party which I have here and which will probably be made public after Major McKinley has decided to give out his letter. I will devote considerable attention to them. For this reason I must decline to give my views in extent as to the right sort of argument to be addressed to Democrats this year. I shall make no campaign speeches and do not expect that Major McKinley will. Were he to do so his opponent would probably follow in his tracks, and would no doubt delight to follow in a cart where Major McKinley had preceded in a palace car, contrasting the two for the sake of argument."

A River Steamer Wrecked.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 24.—The Anchor line steamer City of Hickman, from St. Louis to New Orleans, struck an obstruction at Island Forty. A big hole was torn in her bottom and the officers beached her to prevent her sinking. All of the passengers were taken off by the Chickasaw and brought to this city. She is valued at $50,000. Insurance, $20,000.

PITH OF THE NEWS.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Damrosch are at Stanwood, the Blaine home at Bar Harbor, Me.

Martha Wagner, German thief, was pardoned by Governor Stone of Missouri, on condition that she leave the United States and never return.

Sister Marie Chantal, a French nun, who has been superior of the sisters of the Hospice-General of Tours since 1898, has been made chevalier in the Legion of Honor, a unique position for a woman.

The queen of England has conferred upon the servant who carries for the wheels of the young princes and princesses the title of sergeant bikeman. His costume is a scarlet and gold coat adorned with chevrons, buckskin breeches, top boots and a silk hat.

A boden (Mo.) woman followed her husband to the rockpile after he had been heavily fined in the police court for beating her, and sat there and fanned him while he worked out his sentence.

Elizabeth Seward of Denver, the only woman tiller in the United States, employs from eight to ten men and is assisted by her 22-year-old daughter.

Queen Annalie of Portugal has been devoting much of her time to an attempt to discover an anti-fall pill, in order to stay the tendency to extreme corpulence which has been threatening to disfigure her husband.

A prospector who, with a companion, bought a claim at Goler on the Mojave desert, N. M., for $80, found a few days afterward a $1,614 gold nugget in it.

A colored man of Indianapolis has been arrested for the eighth time for stealing cats. He never steals anything else, and he has come to be known as "Oats Powell."

A public meeting of the brotherhoods of all the railroad men will be held at Harrison Park Casino, Terre Haute. All the chiefs will be present.

The Colorado state board of health in its annual report holds it a duty to stop the indiscriminate transportation of sick people and proposes a system of permits for invalids.

DAMAGED BY A HURRICANE.

Towns in Ohio and Indiana Report Great Destruction.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 24.—Specials report the effects of the hurricane from 11 Indiana and Ohio towns as follows: Burns and other buildings were burned by lightning at New Bremen and Bryan, O.; also at Anderson, Brownstown and Winchester, Ind. At Delphos, O., Noel Bliss, a young school teacher, was struck by lightning and killed.

At Ronsalator, Ind., the speaking in the Republican tabernacle was adjourned. The audience of 2,000 had scarcely left the tabernacle when it was crushed to the earth by the winds. Damage by wind and lightning are reported at Warsaw, Valparaiso, Albion and Elwood, Ind., in which houses and barns were destroyed by lightning.

At Elwood, Ind., Mrs. Mary Quinn and Rev. T. J. Bliss were struck by lightning and dangerously hurt. At Albion, Ind., a young man, name not given, was killed by lightning in a barn. Three lives are reported lost by lightning near Hammond, Ind., but names are not given.

The wind moved about 45 miles an hour for nearly 10 minutes, in Cincinnati. Numerous houses all over the city were unroofed. No casualties are yet reported. Numerous boats were capsized at the Lagoon and their occupants were rescued with difficulty. There was a panic on the steamer Island Queen from Coney Island, among the 2,000 passengers. The vessel was blown around and around in the river several times before she could make a landing.

HAPPENED IN THIS STATE.

John McCoy, a farmer of Wooster, was crushed to death while at work in his barn Friday night.

George G. Schaeffer, a grocer and councilman of Akron, assigned. Assets, $8,000; liabilities, $4,000.

While attending a circus at Alliance Frank Swope was attacked by a lioness and badly lacerated.

The M. E. church at Middletown has petitioned for the return of Dr. William Runyan as pastor.

The Union rolling mill, employing 500 hands, has been shut down for an indefinite period at Cleveland.

During a heavy rainstorm the son of D. M. Bliss, living west of Lima, was struck by lightning and instantly killed. Miss Anna Kendall, a schoolteacher, aged 29 years, has disappeared from her home at Locust Grove, four miles north of Peebles.

Julius Rentski, who killed one man and wounded four with a knife during a riot at Dillonville, was captured in Cleveland.

The cornerstone of St. John's English Evangelical Lutheran church, on St. Clair street, Dayton, will be laid next Sunday afternoon.

Oscar Wellott, an oil well driller, was burned to death near Lima by the gas jet from the well, which he was working igniting and enveloping him.

Frank Bremigan, a Baltimore and Ohio brakeman, has his foot cut off at Somerset on the Newark and Strasburg division. He caught his foot in a guard rail and could not extricate himself.

The six Toledo aldermen who were convicted of bribery in 1892, were restored to citizenship by Governor Bushnell. The six aldermen are Ben O. Manchester, Charles Neundorff, Frank C. Tanner, William G. Gill, John Daley and George W. Doner.

E. L. Hill, R. P. Murphy, James Doyle and John Jones have been arrested, charged with burglarizing the Adams Express office, John Kane's hardware store and J. Stanton Harris' general merchandise store on the night of Aug. 20, at Caldwell.

Mrs. Charles Rine was fatally burned at Lima. She was working over a gas fire, when her clothes were ignited, and in an instant her body was enveloped in flames. She rushed out into the yard, where assistance reached her, and the flames were extinguished.

Secretary Bishop of the state board of arbitration is having difficulty in ascertaining the addresses of officers of the Knights of Labor unions in this state, in view of sending them copies of the arbitration laws. The secretary-treasurer of the organization declines to furnish the names, saying the constitution of the organization forbids.

Every preparation is now being made for the organization in Dayton of a professional baseball club to enter the Western League next year. Dayton can get a place in the league upon the payment of a franchise, but is holding off, fully expecting to take the place of either Grand Rapids or Columbus. The local line will be selected with that object.

The coach department of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton shops, at Dayton, has burned, also the freight car department building, with many freight cars, one baggage, one coach and one sleeper. The whole plant was threatened, but the fire was checked with loss of $60,000. Seventy-five men were thrown out of work, and they lost all their tools.

Chairman Hanna in Boston.

BOSTON, Aug. 24.—Hon. Mark A. Hanna, chairman of the Republican national committee, arrived in Boston, after visiting Beverly farms, where he was the guest of his brother-in-law, J. H. Rhodes. He visited the Republican state headquarters.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. George Miller, of Lincoln avenue, a daughter.

The Stars and Association club are playing ball in Wellsville this afternoon.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wickett, of Bradshaw avenue, a daughter.

The family of Joseph Chetwynd will move today from Spring Grove to the city.

Mrs. Lonnie Thomas and daughter, Miss Hazel, are visiting relatives in Rochester.

Will Till is lying very ill at his home near Spring Grove with an abscess in his left lung.

The Niagara Falls excursionists arrived home on the morning train, and report a most enjoyable trip.

Henry W. Auferderheide, a glassworker, went to Erie yesterday to spend a week in camp with a Pittsburg club.

Charles Bowers and Harry Deidrick went to Beaver this morning, and will spend two days fishing in the river.

George H. Owen sold the Webber property on Saturday, for the Enoch Riley heirs to Thomas Forster for $3,000.

The case of W. H. Gass against John P. Hickey was to have been tried in Squire Morley's court this morning, but has again been postponed, this time indefinitely.

One hundred very neat and artistic badges will be ordered by Trades council. They will be worn on Labor Day and other occasions.

A team from the stilt works played a game of ball Saturday afternoon against a nine of farmers living north of the city. The country cousins won by a score of 33 to 11.

The Crescents, of Wellsville, defeated the Toronto team Saturday afternoon on the grounds of the former club by a score of 6 to 5. McCurran and Finch, of this city, played with the Crescents.

Those from this city who attended the harvest home picnic at Shelton's, Saturday, say it was attended by one of the largest crowds that ever thronged the grounds on an occasion of this kind.

A horse driven by a farmer living a mile north of the city dropped dead on Lisbon road within the corporate limits, Saturday afternoon. Sanitary Policeman King was notified, and had the animal buried.

Jack Tracy and Joseph Pollack came from Akron Saturday, and spent Sunday with friends here. They are employed in the pottery at that place, and say the pottery is being operated to its fullest capacity.

A hot political argument took place on Sixth street Saturday evening, and a large crowd surrounded the principals. Officer Whan moved them from the curbstone, but they continued it in the street until the band came along.

The marriage of Mr. Edward Talbott and Miss Myrtle Wright, well known young people of the West End, as announced some time ago in the News Review, will take place this evening. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. C. W. Huffer.

The Jolly Bachelors are still in camp on Beaver creek, and every Sunday morning visitors from the city call there. The boys are having a pleasant time, and are the picture of good health. The camp will not be broken until cold weather sets in.

The river is closed owing to the low stage of water, but it is not thought this condition will last very long as the fall rise is expected soon. Packets have not passed this place since Saturday, and a small amount of freight is lying at the wharf ready for shipment.

During the minstrel performance in the Bijou theatre at Pittsburg, Saturday evening, the name of McKinley was mentioned, and the audience immediately responded with deafening applause. The name of President Cleveland provoked derisive laughter.

A man, considerably under the influence of whisky, created some excitement Saturday evening at the corner of Fourth and Washington streets by falling into a cellar way. Strange to say, he was not injured and scrambled out muttering vile imprecations on every thing in general.

Henry Carl Dangler is in Allegheny, and will operate a small art pottery there in addition to the plant in Baltimore. Mr. Dangler says his plans are about completed, and it will be but a short time until matters assume tangible form. A number of skilled workmen of this city have been engaged to work in the Baltimore plant.

Chief Johnson respectfully asks all people who chew tobacco to leave their scrap at home when next they congregate in the council chamber. City hall has been recently the scene of several gatherings, and it looked more like a fashionable pig pen the next morning than anything the chief can think of.

Spring Grove campground has a large hero. Saturday evening when the storm came up his wife arose and started to put down a window, when it slipped from her hands. It came down with a crash, and the husband, thinking a burglar was trying to enter the cottage, cried in a loud voice, and grabbing his revolver ran to the window, when his wife asked him what was the matter. He now declares burglars can tear down the house before he tries to prevent them.

The Final Days

of our semi-annual clearance sale are close at hand, and better bargains than at any time during this sale are at your disposal.

All Summer Shoes must go. Look at these prices, and then the shoes, and we're sure of a sale:

Misses Tan Shoes, button or lace, dark or light color, have been $2.00, $1.75, $1.50, $1.25.

Now 98 cts.

Boys' Tan Shoes, heel and spring heel,

Now 98 cts.

Women's Tan Shoes, button and lace, needle toes,

98 cts. and $1.48.

Women's Oxford Ties, black and brown, button, lace and congress, have been $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00.

98 cts. and $1.48.

Women's Shoes, something entirely new, extreme stiletto toe, patent heel foxing, button and lace, were $3.00.

Now $2.18.

Men's Patent Leather Shoes, 50 pairs, odds and ends, were $5.00.

Now $2.50.

Bendheim's.

K. OF P. ENCAMPMENT.

Great Crowds of Visitors—The Ceremonies Today.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 24.—Great crowds of visitors were attracted to the Knights of Pythias encampment Sunday, it being estimated that 50,000 spectators witnessed the dress parade of the Second Ohio regiment in the afternoon.

This afternoon Director General Day of the centennial commission, formally turned over the camp to Major General Carnahan.

Last evening many of the visiting Knights attended service at the Epworth Memorial M. E. church and listened to an appropriate sermon by the pastor.

Among the attractions at the camp is Lafayette, Ind., division of the uniform rank which has won more prizes than any other division in the country, even though it has not competed in prize drills in eight years. There is also present the crack division from Hastings, Mich. Both of these divisions will be in the parade and competitive drill.

Major General Carnahan, in speaking of the Knights as a military organization, said it was a part of the unwritten law of the order that the Knights should respond to the call of the government in time of need, especially if it was necessary to repel an invasion by a foreign foe. The Knights were not in any sense gun-dismen, he said, and they would not take part in internal discussions unless it was necessary to preserve order and uphold the laws.

Supreme Chancellor Richie, in speaking of the policy of the order, said there would probably be no change. "The same lessons that it teaches men today," he said, "will be good for men a thousand years hence. No great question of policy will be debated at the present session of the supreme lodge. The German question and the saloon question were both finally settled and in a definite, decided and plain manner."

The Rathbone Sisters, one of the auxiliary orders of Pythianism, has its headquarters at the Weddell House. The most important business to come before its meeting is the election of a supreme senior. The leading candidates for the place are Mrs. J. B. S. Neubert of Kansas City and Mrs. N. E. Scattergood of Michigan, and some lively engineering in their behalf is already going on.

NO WORD FROM CLEVELAND.

Leader Bynum of the Gold Democrat Movement Denies It.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 24.—In discussing political developments from a gold standard standpoint, it was suggested to ex-Congressman Bynum, that the press dispatches have it that he has received a letter from President Cleveland advising against the nomination of a third ticket and approving a platform of principles without a ticket.

"I have not received a letter from Mr. Cleveland," said Mr. Bynum, "nor have I received an intimation from him either directly or indirectly as to what his views are. I do not believe that Mr. Cleveland will have a word to say either now or during the convention as to his preference."

ALL THE PEOPLE

SAVE MONEY

When they Purchase Groceries of

HUNTSMAN

You will find all the necessities of life, first class goods, at reasonable prices. It will pay you to deal with Huntsman. All reasonable fruits and vegetables. Ask for Marvin's celebrated . . .

Quaker Bread.

Market and Fourth Sts.

HUNTSMAN.

The Potters' Building & Savings Co.

FEATHERBONE CORSETS AND WAISTS.

Correct Shapes Latest Styles

Best Materials Artistic Effects

Reasonable Prices Most Comfortable

Merchants cheerfully

refund the money

after 4 weeks' trial if not satisfactory.

SOLD AND RECOMMENDED BY

CROSSER & OGILVIE CO., Dry Goods and Notions, East Liverpool, Ohio.

FOR SALE. PIANOS

SMITH & PHILLIPS EAST LIVERPOOL - OHIO WITH W. L. THOMPSON & CO.

DR. J. BERT GEORGE, SURGEON DENTIST, Room 4, Fouts' Bld., Fifth and Market. Office hours—8:30 a. m. to 12 m. 1:30 to 5:30 p. m.

F. F. DAVIS, Physician and Surgeon, EAST END. Office Hours—8 to 12 a. m. 1 to 5 p. m. Sundays—1 to 4 p. m.

THE NEWS REVIEW OFFICE. Rock Springs. . .

THE Rock Springs Pleasure Resort is now open for the season, to public and private parties. The steamer Ollie Neville will transport visitors at all times, day or evening. For dates, etc., apply to . . .

MCGHIE & MOORE.

WANTED—AT ONCE, A FOUR OR FIVE roomed house, centrally located. Inquire of D. A. MacIntosh, Sixth street.

LADIES—I MAKE BIG WAGES AT home, and want all to have the same opportunity. The work is very pleasant and will easily pay $15 weekly. This is no deception. I want no money, and will gladly send full particulars to all sending stamp. Miss M. A. Stebbins, Lawrence, Mich.

WANTED TO RENT A HOUSE OF about six rooms with conveniences. State price and full particulars. Address "E. J." care News Review.

LADIES, I make big wages at home, and want all to have the same opportunity. The work is very pleasant and will easily pay $15 weekly. There is no deception. I want no money and will gladly send full particulars to all sending stamp. Miss M. A. Stebbins, Lawrence, Mich.

WANTED—INFORMATION WHICH will lead to the locating of a Le Claire lens, stolen some time since, from the photo gallery in the First National Bank. A suitable reward will be paid to any one giving desired information. Report to this office.

FOR SALE. A some residence property, nicely located on a desirable street. House of five rooms and bath room. All in first-class condition. To a party meaning business, here is a bargain. For full particulars call on L. T. MORLAN, office J. T. Smith Lumber company.

LOST. ONE PAIR GOLD BOWED SPECTACLES in case on Thompson hill. Finder will be rewarded by leaving at National Hotel.

LOST—NATURAL WOOD UMBRELLA handle, with name "Springer" carved. Finder please return to Rev. J. M. Huston.

First class workmen, latest designs of type and improved machinery are essential features of the News Review Job Rooms

PRETTY NEWS REVIEW PRINTING

LISTEN!

You never got a telephone message of more importance than this: That Geo C. Murphy, the Reliable Clothier, Hatter and Gents' Furnisher, has just received his new fall stock of Hats, such as the celebrated

Imperial, Duquesne, Flexor, Flexile, Knox, Miller and Dunlop Block.

We are sole agents for the Imperial Hat, and we claim it is the best hat in America. It is warranted to neither fade nor break. Come in and see it. Our advance styles of Neckwear are now in and we want your opinion. We think it hard to beat.

For good, reliable, stylish garments go to

GEO. C. MURPHY,
Bargain One Price
Clothier, Hatter, Furnisher.

LOVERS

of good Soda Water, Take Notice!

ALVIN H. BULGER,

THE DRUGGIST,

has just begun the manufacture of his Famous

SODA WATER,

Cold and Delicious, Clean and Pure.

Stop in and quench your thirst with a glass of it, and see if it is not superior to any you have tried.

AT BULGER'S

These shoes fit to perfection and wear as only the best of leather can. They're shapely, pliant—the most comfortable of footwear. They always manage to let in air and keep out water.

For sale by J. R. WARNER & CO., East Liverpool, Ohio.

Who Fills Your Prescriptions?

That question you should think about. They are safe in our hands.

Why? Because this is the only store on Sixth street that employs a registered and graduated drug clerk, as required by law.

You Run No Risk at Will Reed's.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Charles Aley was a Minerva visitor over Sunday.

—G. Bendheim left this morning for an eastern trip.

—S. J. Martin and J. H. Smith are in Cleveland today.

—George Forney, of Rochester, spent Sunday with friends here.

—Will Haight spent Sunday with his family in Mechanistown.

—Professor Sanor returned home this morning from Homeworth.

—Ed. L. Bailey, of Pittsburg, is the guest of friends in the city.

—Mrs. Harry Palmer spent Sunday with friends in New Castle, Pa.

—Miss Sadie Boyd, of McCaslin's Mill, Pa., is visiting friends in the city.

—Miss Mary A. Donnell, of the West End, is visiting friends in Pittsburg today.

—Casky T. Ferguson and son went to Cleveland this morning on a visit of a few days.

—Miss Maggie Cuthbert has returned home after spending the summer with relatives in Muncie, Ind.

—Mrs. Rachel Sinclair, of St. Louis, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. S. M. Sinclair, of Bradshaw avenue.

—Harry Wyllie returned home Saturday evening after an eastern trip in the interest of the Union pottery.

—Miss Ella Mountford left this morning for a brief visit with her friend, Miss Klauson, East End, Pittsburg.

—L. F. Maple and Mrs. E. W. Hill, went to Hollow Rock camp this morning, and will remain there during the week.

—Blaine Cochran returned to his home in Allegheny Saturday after a pleasant visit with his grandmother, Mrs. Hume.

—Frank Swaney, in charge of the Central District company's business in the Beaver valley, spent yesterday with friends in the city.

—Hon. David Boyce and wife, Miss Grace Boyce and Sterling Newell composed a party who returned from Chattanooga Saturday evening.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hill and their guests, Miss Worthington, Miss Medill and Miss Bear, spent yesterday with friends in West Virginia.

—Misses Minnie and Maggie Naughton, of Akron, who have been visiting at the home of Daniel Pollock, Fourth street, returned to their home this afternoon.

—Percy Walper, Robert Walters and Mrs. Lively, whose names were not mentioned Saturday, left that evening with the Elks on the excursion to Niagara Falls.

A NEW SWITCH.

Another Track May Go to the Thomas Works.

Some time ago the Thomas Company asked the railroad company to give them a siding. Recently several officials were in the city looking over the ground, and the request is now being taken under advisement. The land has been surveyed, and should the company give their permission the siding will be run into the works from West Market, just east of the Dresden decorating shop.

NOT TODAY.

Low Water Delayed Work on the Electric Road.

Work was not commenced on the electric road today because the low water would not allow the contractors to ship ties and iron to the city. The company will wait a few days, and if there are no signs of a rise in the river, the material will be shipped here by rail. The company's officials say they can not afford to waste much time.

Got an Offer.

Dennis McCurran has received an offer to play with the Parkersburg ball team during the remainder of the season. If he accepts he will occupy a position in the field.

BARGAINS TODAY

At Ferguson & Hill's Five and Ten Cent Store.

Mason's one-quart jars, 50c a dozen. Clark's O. N. T. thread, 3 spools 11c. 10c box soap, 3 cakes in box, 5c. 1 dozen tumblers, worth 50c; go for 24c.

Another Dead Horse.

John Tilford, of Avondale street, lost another horse by death on Saturday. This is the third horse Tilford has lost in the same manner within a few months.

Increased the Force.

Contractor Ryan increased the force of men on Avondale street this morning, and now there are 25 men at work.

Meeting of Street Fair Members.

Notice is hereby given that there will be a meeting of the East Liverpool Free Street Fair association, Tuesday evening, at 7:30 o'clock, at Travis' office in Opera House block. Any person who has not joined can do so at that time.

COMMITTEE.

Excursions to Cleveland.

Aug. 22, 23 and 24 excursion tickets to Cleveland will be sold via Pennsylvania lines, for meeting of Knights of Pythias, uniform rank; return coupons valid Aug. 31 inclusive.

A cream of tartar baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength.—Latest United States Government Food Report. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., New York.

G. A. R. AT ST. PAUL.

Special Rates via Pennsylvania Lines for National Encampment.

August 30 and 31 and September 1 are the dates upon which low rate round trip tickets to St. Paul will be sold via Pennsylvania lines, the short route through Chicago. Tickets will be good returning until September 15, inclusive, and if deposited with the joint agent at St. Paul on or before September 15, the return limit will be extended to include September 30. The rates for this occasion will be exceptionally low via Pennsylvania lines, the only system of railways over which trains run from Western Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio and Indiana to Chicago union station, the natural gateway from those states to the northwest. Daily trains from Pittsburg, Columbus, Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Louisville make convenient connection at Chicago with St. Paul trains. Arrangements may be made by Grand Army posts or parties of friends to travel together on special trains or special car that will go through from starting point to the encampment without change, if the number justifies it. Information on the subject will be cheerfully furnished by representatives of the Pennsylvania lines. The person to address at East Liverpool is Ticket Agent Adam Hill.

ENDED BY DEATH.

Mrs. Smith Will Not Go to the Newburg Asylum.

LISBON, Aug. 24.—[Special.]—Judge Young was called to Salineville on Saturday to conduct an inquest in lunacy. The patient was Mrs. James Smith, and the judge had finished his work, and was about to apply for a place in the Newburg asylum for the poor woman when she died. The remains were interred in Salineville.

Judge Young has accepted the invitation of Jefferson county farmers, and will debate the financial question with Colonel Poorman at a farmers' picnic, to be held in a grove near Salineville, next week. Colonel Poorman is the Bellaire editor who recently flopped to Democracy.

Hot Weather Rules.

In warm weather bowel complaints frequently result from over eating or over drinking. Foley's Colic and Diarrhoea cure affords perfect protection from all bowel derangements and is guaranteed.

For sale at Bulger's and Reed's drug stores.

DIED IN MINERVA.

The Remains of Wilbur Ray Will Be Buried in Riverview.

The body of Wilbur Ray will arrive on the noon train tomorrow from Minerva, and funeral services will be held at once in the Church of Christ, Reverend Huffer officiating. Interment will be made at Riverview. Deceased was formerly a resident of this place, and was well known. He sustained internal injuries while at work in a hay field a few weeks ago, and his death was not unexpected.

You Can Depend on It

That Foley's Colic and Diarrhoea cure is an instant relief for colic, summer complaint, cholera morbus, diarrhoea, bloody flux, chronic diarrhoea, cholera infantum bilious colic, painters' colic and all bowel complaints. Twenty-five and 50 cents. For sale at Bulger's and Reed's drug stores.

How Do You Do?

In "A Parisian in America" M. de Soissons says: "Two Americans, meeting, accost one another with a 'How do you do?' immediately followed by the inquiry, 'How's business?' We Frenchmen say, 'Comment vous portez vous?' (How do you carry yourself?) because we care so much about our appearance—in fact, we are the most vain nation in the world. The Germans say, 'Wie geht's Ihnen?' (How goes it with you?) and, indeed, they do go very slow but sure. The Italians, 'Come state?' (How do you state?) And you know how they stay, especially in these days, with their army and finances. The Russians, 'Kal pagiviyetsh?' (How do you live?) because they are so fond of good material living. But the Anglo-Saxons say, 'How do you do?' because all their faculties are concentrated upon their work, upon hard work from morning till night. That is the secret of their prosperity. The Americans say still more. He asks immediately about business. They do not care about their health, about their living. Their great care is about business. They kill themselves with hard work; they neglect their physical and mental life, but they make business flourishing and booming."

Francis Drake and Cecil Rhodes.

You ignore the fact that there were two Drakes, as there are two Cecil Rhodeses. When Drake's consummate seamanship and audacious courage successfully resisted the armada and sent the Duke of Sidonia "back to St. Mary Port among his orange trees," he became, and will justly remain for all time, an English hero. But eight years previously Drake stole the church plate of Lima, when Spain was at peace with England.

His robbery disgraced England and himself. In the remarkable volume of letters and state papers relating to English affairs edited by Major Sharp Hume, from the archives at Simancas, I have counted 39 instances in which the restitution of Drake's plunder is referred to by Dr. Mendoza in language which might be employed today by the agent general of the Transvaal. There was nothing admirable in the episode of the Lima plate; quite the reverse. Is it not, therefore, a good thing to distinguish between the good and the bad in Drake as in Mr. Rhodes? If Drake had been broken in 1579 for his theft of the Lima chalices and patens, he would never have had the opportunity of winning half the three days' battles in the channel in August, 1588. On the other hand, to condone the piratical expeditions of the earlier part of Drake's career because later on he acted nobly and as a true Englishman is unnecessary.

Should not the same thing hold good about Mr. Rhodes? We may admire and be grateful for his stand against Germany while condemning his plot against a friendly state and the Stock Exchange aroma of the whole transaction.—London Chronicle.

Cooper Not Yet Neglected.

In commenting in Longman's Magazine on the recent "Introduction to the Study of American Literature" Mr. Andrew Lang declares that Cooper "seems to be a good deal neglected now. No body goes on the trail with Natty Bumppo (sic)." It may be that Cooper is neglected in England, but he has not been neglected by all recent British authors, for Robert Louis Stevenson read him and praised him and borrowed from him, and Mr. Rudyard Kipling told an American friend not long ago that he had just been reading Cooper through and through with constantly increasing appreciation. And Cooper is not neglected by the publishers either in France or in America. In Paris not long ago a sumptuously illustrated translation of the most famous of Cooper's stories was issued uniform with a translation of the most famous of Scott's novels. In the United States "The Last of the Mohicans" has now been put on the list of books which a boy must read before he can get into college. The Putnam has begun to publish a complete set of his novels, illustrated, and to be known as the Mohawk edition. T. Y. Crowell & Co. have in preparation a new edition of the five Leatherstocking Tales, to be illustrated with full page photographs, by Mr. Frank T. Merrill and to be introduced by a long biographical and critical essay by Professor Brander Matthews.—Bookman.

A Cow Worth More Than a Man.

In the United States the administration of the law affecting the civil rights of the citizen, his property rights growing out of controversies between man and man upon contracts, has come to be regarded as of much more importance than the enforcement of the law which protects the life of the citizen. All can notice that. The criminal law and its administration have rather fallen into disgrace. That is especially true of the large cities of the country. All must agree that it is more important to protect a man's life than it is his property. If the man's life is destroyed, if the assassin fires into his house and takes away his life, is that not a greater deprivation than to deprive him of his horse or his cow or even of all the other property which he possesses? Now why is this the case? It is largely because of the corrupt methods resorted to to defeat the law's administration and because courts of justice look to the shadow in the shape of technicalities rather than to the substance in the shape of crime.—North American Review.

Sung Revenge as He Strewed Roses.

Human nature will assert itself, and it did it at a Sunday school celebration in one of the outlying wards. The church was crowded with fond parents and friends to enjoy the exhibition of their youngsters going through their religious exercises. The participants were all boys ranging from 7 to 15 years of age, and they looked angelic, the most of them, in their clean white waists and knickerbockers, with patent leather pumps. One of them attracted attention by his cherubic appearance, as the children walked backward with bowed and reverent attitude, strewing flowers before their religious teachers and singing in sweet, boyish treble. Just as the song swelled to its fullest the boy in front of the cherubic lad by mischance trod on his foot and without changing a muscle in the expression of his face the latter went on strewing his roses and singing, changing the words of the hymn to "I'll swipe you for that when we get out."—Brooklyn Eagle.

They Knew What It Was.

A school inspector, finding a class hesitating over answering the question, "With what weapon did Samson slay the Philistines?" and wishing to prompt them, significantly tapped his cheek and asked, "What is this?"

The Whole Class.—The jawbone of an ass.—Philadelphia Times.

A statistical authority says that a woman's chance of being married is best between 20 and 25. After 50 her chance is one in 10,000.

Noon as Nature's Dining Hour.

Persons who keep close watch on themselves are of the opinion that the hour of noon is the most critical period of life. At that time the human frame undergoes serious changes. The stomach has dispatched the morning meal and sends scouting parties in search of another. The eyes and brain are on the alert, and there is a sort of all-goneness pervading the anatomy that sharpens the faculties and puts a new edge on the teeth. It is nature's dining time, and everything about the healthy man or woman is attuned to the demolition or enjoyment of what is called a "good square meal." Those who pay heed to the prompting of nature at this divine hour have their reward in good appetite, good temper and excellent digestion, which is conducive to all the good that flesh is heir to. But those who, following the imperious dictates of fashion, defer the hour of dining until all natural longings are dead and have to be resurrected by adventitious aids lay a train of evils and discomforts which sooner or later become the plague of their lives. It is a well known fact that the noon diners are healthier and stronger and have better chances for long life than others.—Chicago Chronicle.

His Interpretation.

The disagreeable person was stalking along the street with a companion who had long since given up trying to be genial and conversational. They passed a mutual acquaintance, a man who looked coldly at the disagreeable person, held his head in air and passed on without a sign of recognition.

"Don't you know who that is?" "Yes," was the answer. "He is ordinarily a very audacious, loquacious and mendacious individual."

"I thought perhaps you did not see him."

"I looked straight at him, as he did at me."

"Then he snubbed you."

"Snubbed me, sir? Well, perhaps it might be spoken of in that way."

"I call it a downright insolent trick."

"Well, that goes to show how differently people will look at the same thing. When he passed me without stopping to speak, I was giving him credit for the greatest act of consideration, sir, that I had ever known him to show."—Detroit Free Press.

When You Take Your Vacation

The most necessary article to have with you (after your pocketbook) is a bottle of Foley's Colic and Diarrhoea cure. It is an absolute prevention or cure of all derangements of the bowels caused by a change of water. You are likely to need it.

For sale at Bulger's and Reed's drug stores.

You ought to know that when suffering from any kidney trouble that a safe, sure remedy is Foley's Kidney cure. Guaranteed or money refunded.

For sale at Bulger's and Reed's drug stores.

NOTICE TO GAS CONSUMERS.

All domestic consumers connected with the Ohio Valley Gas company's lines are hereby notified that after Oct. 1, 1896, gas will be supplied only through meters. Meters will be furnished at the consumers' expense upon application at the office of this company. The price per thousand cubic feet by meter will be twenty-five cents, subject to a discount of twenty per cent, provided bills are paid on or before the 10th of each month for preceding month's supply.

THE OHIO VALLEY GAS CO.

SAVE THAT DOLLAR FERGUSON & HILL'S

Is the Place where You Can Save Many Dollars for a Rainy Day....

Tin Cans, per doz. .... $ .30
Mason's quart jars, per doz. .... .60
100 pieces Opague China ..... 5.99
100 " " decorated fine... 11.50
(Equal in style and beauty to Haviland.)
Hammocks at cost. Shirt Waists half price
Brooms ..... 10c, 15c, 20c, .25

See our display of New Vase and Hanging Lamps. They are beauties.

FERGUSON & HILL,
228 Diamond, City.

DR. MOTT'S PENNYROYAL PILLS.

The only safe, sure and reliable Female FILL ever offered to Ladies, especially recommended to married Ladies. Ask for DR. MOTT'S PENNYROYAL PILLS and take no other. Send for circular. Price $1.00 per box, 6 boxes for $5.00. DR. MOTT'S CHEMICAL CO., Cleveland, Ohio.

For sale at Will Reed's Opera House Pharmacy, Sixth street, East Liverpool, Ohio.

EVERY WOMAN

Sometimes needs a reliable, monthly, regulating medicine. Only harmless and the purest drugs should be used. If you want the best, get

Dr. Peal's Pennyroyal Pills

They are prompt, safe and certain in result. The genuine (Dr. Peal's) never disappoint. Sent anywhere, $1.00. Address PEAL MANUFACTURING CO., Cleveland, O. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger, Druggist, Cor. Sixth and West Market, East Liverpool, O.

Excursions to Steubenville.
September 2, 3, and 4, low round trip tickets will be sold to Steubenville from Carnegie, New Cumberland, Short Creek, Portland, East Liverpool, Cadiz, and intermediate ticket stations on Pennsylvania lines for the races; return coupons valid Sept. 5, inclusive. *

Excursions to Milwaukee, Wis.
Aug. 23 and 24 excursion tickets to Milwaukee, Wis., will be sold via Pennsylvania lines, for Republican league national convention; return coupons valid Saturday, Aug. 29, inclusive. *

If you desire poor printing don't come to the NEWS REVIEW. We don't do it.

WADE, THE JEWELER.

You can find him at corner of Sixth and West Market sts. in the new Anderson block. He deals in all classes of Jewelry, and sells at reasonable prices and on most favorable terms. It will pay you to call on him.

REPAIRING A SPECIAL FEATURE.

DR. W. J. TAYLOR,
Physician and Surgeon.

Corner Sixth and East Market streets, over Luckin's Drug Store. Hours, 10 a. m. to 12 to 2 and 6 to 8 p. m.

3 GREAT CHARACTERISTICS. 3

Enterprise.
Accuracy.
Reliability.

That's what marks our business. You can't afford to have your prescriptions filled with cheap drugs and substitutes. The best costs no more and always do the work right. If you are wise you will COME TO US with your prescriptions. We guarantee to give you satisfaction.

CLARENCE G. ANDERSON,
Graduate in Pharmacy,
N. E. Cor. Sixth and West Market Streets.

THE BIG STORE!

OUR 9 DAY REDUCTION SALE

Is Going Merrily Along.

DISCOUNTS KEEP PEOPLE IN GOOD HUMOR.
TO-DAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY,
OUR STOCK-OF ROCKERS
Will be the articles to suffer.

If you can use another Rocker, come to this 3 days sale for you'll never have another chance to buy them so cheap. YOU CAN MAKE MONEY BY BUYING AT THIS 9 DAYS REDUCTION SALE, at

HARD'S.

LISTEN!

You never got a telephone message of more importance than this: That Geo. C. Murphy, the Reliable Clothier, Hatter and Gents' Furnisher, has just received his new fall stock of Hats, such as the celebrated

Imperial, Duquesne, Flexor, Flexile, Knox, Miller and Dunlop Block.

We are sole agents for the Imperial Hat, and we claim it is the best hat in America. It is warranted to neither fade nor break. Come in and see it. Our advance styles of Neckwear are now in and we want your opinion. We think it hard to beat.

For good, reliable, stylish garments go to

GEO. C. MURPHY,
Bargain One Price
Clothier, Hatter, Furnisher.

LOVERS

of good Soda Water, Take Notice!

ALVIN H. BULGER,

THE DRUGGIST,

has just begun the manufacture of his Famous

SODA WATER,

Cold and Delicious, Clean and Pure.

Stop in and quench your thirst with a glass of it, and see if it is not superior to any you have tried.

AT BULGER'S

These shoes fit to perfection and wear as only the best of leather can. They're shapely, pliant—the most comfortable of footwear. They always manage to let in air and keep out water.

For sale by J. B. WARNER & CO., East Liverpool, Ohio.

Who Fills Your Prescriptions?

That question you should think about. They are safe in our hands

Why? Because this is the only store on Sixth street that employs a registered and graduated drug clerk, as required by law.

You Run No Risk at Will Reed's.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Charles Aley was a Minerva visitor over Sunday.

—G. Bendheim left this morning for an eastern trip.

—S. J. Martin and J. H. Smith are in Cleveland today.

—George Forney, of Rochester, spent Sunday with friends here.

—Will Hought spent Sunday with his family in Mechanicstown.

—Professor Sanor returned home this morning from Homeworth.

—Ed. L. Bailey, of Pittsburg, is the guest of friends in the city.

—Mrs. Harry Palmer spent Sunday with friends in New Castle, Pa.

—Miss Sadie Boyd, of McCauslin's Mill, Pa., is visiting friends in the city.

—Miss Mary A. Donnell, of the West End, is visiting friends in Pittsburg today.

—Casky T. Ferguson and son went to Cleveland this morning on a visit of a few days.

—Miss Maggie Cuthbert has returned home after spending the summer with relatives in Muncie, Ind.

—Mrs. Rachel Sinclair, of St. Louis, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. S. M. Sinclair, of Bradshaw avenue.

—Harry Wyllie returned home Saturday evening after an eastern trip in the interest of the Union pottery.

—Miss Ella Mountford left this morning for a brief visit with her friend, Miss Klauson, East End, Pittsburg.

—L. F. Maple and Mrs. E. W. Hill, went to Hollow Rock camp this morning, and will remain there during the week.

—Blaine Cochran returned to his home in Allegheny Saturday after a pleasant visit with his grandmother, Mrs. Hume.

—Frank Swaney, in charge of the Central District company's business in the Beaver valley, spent yesterday with friends in the city.

—Hon. David Boyce and wife, Miss Grace Boyce and Sterling Newell composed a party who returned from Chattanooga Saturday evening.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hill and their guests, Miss Worthington, Miss Medill and Miss Bear, spent yesterday with friends in West Virginia.

—Misses Minnie and Maggie Naughton, of Akron, who have been visiting at the home of Daniel Pollock, Fourth street, returned to their home this afternoon.

—Percy Walper, Robert Walters and Mrs. Livesly, whose names were not mentioned Saturday, left that evening with the Elks on the excursion to Niagara Falls.

A NEW SWITCH.

Another Track May Go to the Thomas Works.

Some time ago the Thomas Company asked the railroad company to give them a siding. Recently several officials were in the city looking over the ground, and the request is now being taken under advisement. The land has been surveyed, and should the company give their permission the siding will be run into the works from West Market, just east of the Dresden decorating shop.

NOT TODAY.

Low Water Delayed Work on the Electric Road.

Work was not commenced on the electric road today because the low water would not allow the contractors to ship ties and iron to the city. The company will wait a few days, and if there are no signs of a rise in the river, the material will be shipped here by rail. The company's officials say they can not afford to waste much time.

Got an Offer.

Dennis McCurran has received an offer to play with the Parkersburg ball team during the remainder of the season. If he accepts he will occupy a position in the field.

BARGAINS TODAY

At Ferguson & Hill's Five and Ten Cent Store.

Mason's one-quart jars, 50c a dozen. Clark's O. N. T. thread, 3 spools 11c. 10c box soap, 3 cakes in box, 5c. 1 dozen tumblers, worth 50c; go for 34c.

Another Dead Horse.

John Tilford, of Avondale street, lost another horse by death on Saturday. This is the third horse Tilford has lost in the same manner within a few months.

Increased the Force.

Contractor Ryan increased the force of men on Avondale street this morning, and now there are 25 men at work.

Meeting of Street Fair Members.

Notice is hereby given that there will be a meeting of the East Liverpool Free Street Fair association, Tuesday evening, at 7:30 o'clock, at Travis' office in Opera House block. Any person who has not joined can do so at that time.

COMMITTEE.

Excursions to Cleveland.

Aug. 22, 23 and 24 excursion tickets to Cleveland will be sold via Pennsylvania lines, for meeting of Knights of Pythias, uniform rank; return coupons valid Aug. 31 inclusive.

A cream of tartar baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength.—Latest United States Government Food Report. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., New York.

G. A. R. AT ST. PAUL.

Special Rates via Pennsylvania Lines for National Encampment.

August 30 and 31 and September 1 are the dates upon which low rate round trip tickets to St. Paul will be sold via Pennsylvania lines, the short route through Chicago. Tickets will be good returning until September 15, inclusive, and if deposited with the joint agent at St. Paul on or before September 15, the return limit will be extended to include September 30. The rates for this occasion will be exceptionally low via Pennsylvania lines, the only system of railways over which trains run from Western Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio and Indiana to Chicago union station, the natural gateway from those states to the northwest. Daily trains from Pittsburg, Columbus, Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Louisville make convenient connection at Chicago with St. Paul trains. Arrangements may be made by Grand Army posts or parties of friends to travel together on special trains or special car that will go through from starting point to the encampment without change, if the number justifies it. Information on the subject will be cheerfully furnished by representatives of the Pennsylvania lines. The person to address at East Liverpool is Ticket Agent Adam Hill.

ENDED BY DEATH.

Mrs. Smith Will Not Go to the Newburg Asylum.

LISBON, Aug. 24.—[Special.]—Judge Young was called to Salineville on Saturday to conduct an inquest in lunacy. The patient was Mrs. James Smith, and the judge had finished his work, and was about to apply for a place in the Newburg asylum for the poor woman when she died. The remains were interred in Salineville.

Judge Young has accepted the invitation of Jefferson county farmers, and will debate the financial question with Colonel Poorman at a farmers' picnic, to be held in a grove near Salineville, next week. Colonel Poorman is the Bellaire editor who recently flopped to Democracy.

Hot Weather Rules.

In warm weather bowel complaints frequently result from over eating or over drinking. Foley's Colic and Diarrhoea cure affords perfect protection from all bowel derangements and is guaranteed.

For sale at Bulger's and Reed's drug stores.

DIED IN MINERVA.

The Remains of Wilbur Ray Will Be Buried in Riverview.

The body of Wilbur Ray will arrive on the noon train tomorrow from Minerva, and funeral services will be held at once in the Church of Christ, Reverend Huffer officiating. Interment will be made at Riverview. Deceased was formerly a resident of this place, and was well known. He sustained internal injuries while at work in a hay field a few weeks ago, and his death was not unexpected.

You Can Depend on It

That Foley's Colic and Diarrhoea cure is an instant relief for colic, summer complaint, cholera morbus, diarrhoea, bloody flux, chronic diarrhoea, cholera infantum, bilious colic, painters' colic and all bowel complaints. Twenty-five and 50 cents.

For sale at Bulger's and Reed's drug stores.

How Do You Do?

In "A Parisian in America" M. de Soissons says: "Two Americans, meeting, accost one another with a 'How do you do?' immediately followed by the inquiry, 'How's business?' We Frenchmen say, 'Comment vous portez-vous?' (How do you carry yourself?) because we care so much about our appearance—in fact, we are the most vain nation in the world. The Germans say, 'Wie geht's Ihnen?' (How goes it with you?) and, indeed, they do go very well but sure. The Italians, 'Come state?' (How do you stay?) And you know how they stay, especially in these days, with their army and finances. The Russians, 'Kak pagivetyeh?' (How do you live?) because they are so fond of good material living. But the Anglo-Saxons say, 'How do you do?' because all their faculties are concentrated upon their work, upon hard work from morning till night. That is the secret of their prosperity. The American says still more. He asks immediately about business. They do not care about their health, about their living. Their great care is about business. They kill themselves with hard work; they neglect their physical and mental life, but they make business flourishing and booming."

Francis Drake and Cecil Rhodes.

You ignore the fact that there were two Drakes, as there are two Cecil Rhodeses. When Drake's consummate seamanship and audacious courage successfully resisted the armada and sent the Duke of Sidonia "back to St. Mary Port among his orange trees," he became, and will justly remain for all time, an English hero. But eight years previously Drake stole the church plate of Lima, when Spain was at peace with England.

His robbery disgraced England and himself. In the remarkable volume of letters and state papers relating to English affairs edited by Major Sharp Hume, from the archives at Simancas, I have counted 39 instances in which the restitution of Drake's plunder is referred to by Dr. Mendoza in language which might be employed today by the agent general of the Transvaal. There was nothing admirable in the episode of the Lima plate; quite the reverse. Is it not, therefore, a good thing to distinguish between the good and the bad in Drake as in Mr. Rhodes? If Drake had been broken in 1579 for his theft of the Lima chalices and patens, he would never have had the opportunity of winning half the three days' battles in the channel in August, 1588. On the other hand, to condone the piratical expeditions of the earlier part of Drake's career because later on he acted nobly and as a true Englishman is unnecessary.

Should not the same thing hold good about Mr. Rhodes? We may admire and be grateful for his stand against Germany while condemning his plot against a friendly state and the Stock Exchange aroma of the whole transaction.—London Chronicle.

Cooper Not Yet Neglected.

In commenting in Longman's Magazine on the recent "Introduction to the Study of American Literature" Mr. Andrew Lang declares that Cooper "seems to be a good deal neglected now. Nobody goes on the trail with Natty Bumppo (sic)." It may be that Cooper is neglected in England, but he has not been neglected by all recent British authors, for Robert Louis Stevenson read him and praised him and borrowed from him, and Mr. Rudyard Kipling told an American friend not long ago that he had just been reading Cooper through and through with constantly increasing appreciation. And Cooper is not neglected by the publishers either in France or in America. In Paris not long ago a sumptuously illustrated translation of the most famous of Cooper's stories was issued uniform with a translation of the most famous of Scott's novels. In the United States "The Last of the Mohicans" has now been put on the list of books which a boy must read before he can get into college. The Putnam has begun to publish a complete set of his novels, illustrated, and to be known as the Mohawk edition. T. Y. Crowell & Co. have in preparation a new edition of the five Leatherstocking Tales, to be illustrated with full page photographs, by Mr. Frank T. Merrill and to be introduced by a long biographical and critical essay by Professor Brander Matthews.—Bookman.

A Cow Worth More Than a Man.

In the United States the administration of the law affecting the civil rights of the citizen, his property rights growing out of controversies between man and man upon contracts, has come to be regarded as of much more importance than the enforcement of the law which protects the life of the citizen. All can notice that. The criminal law and its administration have rather fallen into disgrace. That is especially true of the large cities of the country. All must agree that it is more important to protect a man's life than it is his property. If the man's life is destroyed, if the assassin fires into his house and takes away his life, is that not a greater deprivation than to despoil him of his horse or his cow or even of all the other property which he possesses? Now why is this the case? It is largely because of the corrupt methods resorted to to defeat the law's administration and because courts of justice look to the shadow in the shape of technicalities rather than to the substance in the shape of crime.—North American Review.

Sung Revenge as He Strewed Roses.

Human nature will assert itself, and it did it at a Sunday school celebration in one of the outlying wards. The church was crowded with fond parents and friends to enjoy the exhibition of their youngsters going through their religious exercises. The participants were all boys ranging from 7 to 15 years of age, and they looked angelic, the most of them, in their clean white waists and knickerbockers, with patent leather pumps. One of them attracted attention by his cherubic appearance, as the children walked backward with bowed and reverent attitude, strewing flowers before their religious teachers and singing in sweet, boyish treble. Just as the song swelled to its fullest the boy in front of the cherubic lad by mischance trod on his foot and without changing a muscle in the expression of his face the latter went on strewing his roses and singing, changing the words of the hymn to "I'll swipe you for that when we get out."—Brooklyn Eagle.

They Knew What It Was.

A school inspector, finding a class hesitating over answering the question, "With what weapon did Samson slay the Philistines?" and wishing to prompt them, significantly tapped his cheek and asked, "What is this?" The Whole Class—The jawbone of an ass.—Philadelphia Times.

A statistical authority says that a woman's chance of being married is best between 20 and 25. After 50 her chance is one in 10,000.

The French government makes no official examination of the device for which a patent is asked and requires no models.

NOON AS NATURE'S DINING HOUR.

Persons who keep close watch on themselves are of the opinion that the hour of noon is the most critical period of life. At that time the human frame undergoes serious changes. The stomach has dispatched the morning meal and sends scouting parties in search of another. The eyes and brain are on the alert, and there is a sort of all goneeness pervading the anatomy that sharpens the faculties and puts a new edge on the teeth. It is nature's dining time, and everything about the healthy man or woman is attuned to the demolition or enjoyment of what is called a "good square meal." Those who pay heed to the prompting of nature at this divine hour have their reward in good appetite, good temper and excellent digestion, which is conducive to all the good that flesh is heir to. But those who, following the imperious dictates of fashion, defer the hour of dining until all natural longings are dead and have to be resurrected by adventitious aids lay a train of evils and discomforts which sooner or later become the plague of their lives. It is a well known fact that the noon diners are healthier and stronger and have better chances for long life than others.—Chicago Chronicle.

His Interpretation.

The disagreeable person was stalking along the street with a companion who had long since given up trying to be genial and conversational. They passed a mutual acquaintance, a man who looked coldly at the disagreeable person, held his head in air and passed on without a sign of recognition. "Don't you know who that is?" "Yes," was the answer. "He is ordinarily a very audacious, loquacious and mendacious individual."

"I thought perhaps you did not see him."

"I looked straight at him, as he did at me."

"Then he snubbed you."

"Snubbed me, sir? Well, perhaps it might be spoken of in that way."

"I call it a downright insolent trick."

"Well, that goes to show how differently people will look at the same thing. When he passed me without stopping to speak, I was giving him credit for the greatest act of consideration, sir, that I had ever known him to show."—Detroit Free Press.

When You Take Your Vacation

The most necessary article to have with you (after your pocketbook) is a bottle of Foley's Colic and Diarrhoea cure. It is an absolute prevention or cure of all derangements of the bowels caused by a change of water. You are likely to need it.

For sale at Bulger's and Reed's drug stores.

You ought to know that when suffering from any kidney trouble that a safe, sure remedy is Foley's Kidney cure. Guaranteed or money refunded.

For sale at Bulger's and Reed's drug stores.

NOTICE TO GAS CONSUMERS.

All domestic consumers connected with the Ohio Valley Gas company's lines are hereby notified that after Oct. 1, 1896, gas will be supplied only through meters. Meters will be furnished at the consumers' expense upon application at the office of this company. The price per thousand cubic feet by meter will be twenty-five cents, subject to a discount of twenty per cent, provided bills are paid on or before the 10th of each month for preceding month's supply.

THE OHIO VALLEY GAS CO.

FERGUSON & HILL'S

Is the Place where You Can Save Many Dollars for a Rainy Day....

Tin Cans, per doz. .... $ .30
Mason's quart jars, per doz. .... .60
100 pieces Opac China .... 5.99
100 " " decorated fine. .... 11.50
(Equal in style and beauty to Haviland.)
Hammocks at cost. Shirt Waists half price
Brooms ..... 10c, 15c, 20c, .25

See our display of New Vase and Hanging Lamps. They are beauties

FERGUSON & HILL,
228 Diamond, City.

DR. MOTT'S PENNYROYAL PILLS.

The only safe, sure and reliable Female FILL ever offered to Ladies, especially recommended to married Ladies.

Ask for DR. MOTT'S PENNYROYAL PILLS and take no other.

Send for circular. Price $1.00 per box, 3 boxes for $3.00.

DR. MOTT'S CHEMICAL CO., Cleveland, Ohio.

EVERY WOMAN

Sometimes needs a reliable, monthly, regulating medicine. Only harmless and the purest drugs should be used. If you want the best, get

Dr. Peal's Pennyroyal Pills

They are prompt, safe and certain in result. The genuine (Dr. Peal's) never disappoint. Sent anywhere, $1.00. Address Peal's Medicine Co., Cleveland, O.

For sale by Alvin H. Bulger, Druggist, Cor. Sixth and West Market, East Liverpool, O.

Excursions to Steubenville.

September 2, 3, and 4, low round trip tickets will be sold to Steubenville from Carnegie, New Cumberland, Short Creek, Portland, East Liverpool, Cadiz, and intermediate ticket stations on Pennsylvania lines for the races; return coupons valid Sept. 5, inclusive.

Excursions to Milwaukee, Wis.

Aug. 23 and 24 excursion tickets to Milwaukee, Wis., will be sold via Pennsylvania lines, for Republican league national convention; return coupons valid Saturday, Aug. 29, inclusive.

If you desire poor printing don't come to the NEWS REVIEW. We don't do it.

WADE, THE JEWELER.

You can find him at corner of Sixth and West Market sts. in the new Anderson block. He deals in all classes of Jewelry, and sells at reasonable prices and on most favorable terms. It will pay you to call on him.

REPAIRING A SPECIAL FEATURE.

DR. W. J. TAYLOR,

Physician and Surgeon.

Corner Sixth and East Market streets, over Larkin's Drug Store. Hours, 10 a. m. to 12 p. m. and 6 to 8 p. m.

2 and 6 to 8 p. m.

3 GREAT CHARACTERISTICS. 3

Enterprise. Accuracy. Reliability.

That's what marks our business. You can't afford to have your prescriptions filled with cheap drugs and substitutes. The best costs no more and always do the work right. If you are wise you will with your prescriptions. We guarantee to give you satisfaction.

COME TO US

CLARENCE G. ANDERSON,

Graduate in Pharmacy.

N. E. Cor. Sixth and West Market Streets.

THE BIG STORE!

OUR 9 DAY REDUCTION SALE

Is Going Merrily Along.

DISCOUNTS KEEP PEOPLE IN GOOD HUMOR.

TO-DAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY,

OUR STOCK OF ROCKERS

Will be the articles to suffer.

If you can use another Rocker, come to this 3 days sale for you'll never have another chance to buy them so cheap. YOU CAN MAKE MONEY BY BUYING AT THIS 9 DAYS REDUCTION SALE, at

HARD'S.